Frankford Juveniles Win Series 3-2

To coin the phrase, "they fought a good fight" would certainly sum up the Stirling-Frankford Juvenile Group Final series.

Stirling suffered elimination Monday night as Frankford came up with a 4 - 2 win in the fifth and deciding game.

During the series, the local team had relied on additional help from the two Midget defencemen, Dave Jeffs and Stan Myers, and the Midget goalie, Richard Whattam, but their presence Monday was to no avail. The series proved that the additions were badly needed as Stirling won all their games carrying these three players.

The series was a gruelling one for both Stirling and Frankford with Stirling winning on home ice with scores of 9 - 6, and 9 - 5. Frankford won their two games in Frankford by scores of 7 - 5 and 6 - 2. This was Stirling's first loss on home ice in the series.

Frankford led the scoring off Monday night at 10:15 of the first period with Ken Jessup picking up the goal. Jessup rapped in another goal for Frankford at 11:30 of the same period.

John Masterson gave Frankford a 4 - 0 lead at the end of the second period with goals at 4:30 and 15:30.

Stirling hit the score sheet at the 6:23 mark of the final frame with Art Reid potting a goal unassisted. Bill Jacket assisted by Ron Andrews picked up Stirling's other marker at 17:04 of the period.

In the penalty department, there were 13 penalties, all minors, with Frankford being assessed with seven of them.

A capacity crowd, the largest in the series, filled the arena to watch the deciding game with spectators hanging from rafters to watch the action. The wooden platforms built this week by members of the Hockey Association along the sides of the rink allowed many more people to see the ice surface.

Stirling, favoring the home ice, downed Frankford in the third game of the series, Thursday night, 9 - 5. Stirling again had the aid of the defencemen and goalie from the Midget team.

Frankford scored the only first period goal at 6:50, Ken Jessup gave Frankford a two goal lead early in the second period but Roger Wannamaker managed to narrow Frankford's lead. Ken Jackett assisted on the play. Doug Nash led off Frankford's scoring in the third period but that's as far as Frankford could go. For the next 14 minutes and 31 seconds the local Juveniles dominated the play as Frankford fell completely apart especially in the defence department. Jim McGeachy fell to pieces in the Frankford cage and coach of the team, Bob Lockwood replaced him.

In the Stirling net, Richard Whattam was stopping the Frankford shots that were few and far between. Stirling started their scoring spree at 7:50 of the period with Mike Hunter potting a goal from Ron Andrews and Rob Arbuckle. Hunter again connected in the period from Andrews. Arbuckle scored from Dale Bamber and Steve Empey with Roger Wannamaker picked up his second marker from Bill and Ken Jackett. Bill Jackett scored from Ken Jackett and Roger Wannamaker at 12:32 while Ron Andrews potted a goal from Art Reid and Mike Hunter.

McLean's goal for Frankford at 14:31 of the period hadn't stopped Stirling's attack as two the local club's defencemen, Paul Whattam and Dave Jeffs moved in to score at 15:20 and 15:40 of the period. Both goals were assisted by Rob Arbuckle, Brian Ackers, and Dale Bamber. McLean finished the scoring for Frankford at the 16:20 mark.

Stirling Juveniles were unable to take Friday night's fourth game from Frankford as they ran out of power going into the third period. At the end of the second period the score was tied up at 2 - 2 but Frankford moved out front to upset Stirling 6 - 2. Ron Andrews and Mike Hunter picked up the two Stirling markers.

DON MILLS TAKE 'B' TROPHY

Barry Wilson, assistant coach of the Stirling Girls Hockey Team, presents the 'B' Trophy to Shirley Walker of the Don Mills Girls Hockey Team following a tournament held at the local arena Saturday. Don Mills took the trophy after downing Toronto - Lambton 8-2. Kathy Ferrare of the Don Mills team was presented with the Most Valuable Player Award of the tournament.

GIRLS MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

Sharron Lessard is presented with the Stirling Girls Hockey team Most Valuable Player Award by Barry Wilson, assistant coach of the team. The presentation was made Saturday night at the close of an All-Day Tournamen in which the local Girls team took the "A" championship.

Senior Citizens hold meeting

We were very happy to welcome Bessie West to our meeting on Thursday. Dis ole Scribe has good reason to know that she plays a stiff hand at euchre.

The Senior Citizens extend their sympathy to Amy Schram and Family in their recent bereavement.

Past Pres. George Heasman will be on his own for a few weeks beginning on Saturday. His wife Lil is on another rampage again, this time it's California. She left George in my care. Now you all know that no one man can keep track of George, so girls you will greatly assist me in my duty if you'll all please keep your doors locked.

We hear that Ross and Ada Bush are also making the trip.

Fur was flying at the nine tables of spirited euchre, Helen Sarles and John Kane taking the cake and Lil Heasman and Will Fitchett also got a prize. Ross Hoard came close but lost out in the draw. Ann Faulkner, Edith Bradshaw, Flossie Geen and Margaret Fitchett served a tasty lunch. Thanks kids. Richie Geen was in a gay mood this being his birthday and his wife Flossie presented him with a nice big cake. Richie thanked his wife and ended his speech with two good stories that added color to the cheeks of some of our more modest ones.

Midgets Oust Tweed 4-2

Stirling Midgets took the fifth and deciding game from Tweed Friday night 4-2 in the best of five Group Finals. Stirling's chances at taking the series had been threatened Wednesday night in Tweed after a 7-2 upset.

Richard Whattam, goalie for the local Midgets had a shut-out going for him up to the 17:34 mark of the final period when Lessard scored for Tweed. The visiting team potted their second goal of the night at 17:57 as they struggled to come back after two periods in which Stirling dominated the action.

Rob DeJong scored Stirling's first goal at 1:20 of the first period with Kevin Solmes assisting. De Jong picked up his second goal of the game at 7:00 of the period unassisted.

Kevin Solmes opened the scoring in the third period after a scoreless second period at 9:46 from Ken Jackett and Rob DeJong. The same line struck at 11:56 of the period to round off Stirling's win.

Ken Jackett and Wally Blakely picked up Stirling's goals in their loosing attempt Wednesday night in Tweed.

Stirling will enter into the best of five Ontario Quarter Finals against Pickering. The first game of this series has not yet been scheduled.

Pee Wees open Quarter -Finals

Stirling Legion Pee Wees will open their Ontario Quarter Finals here Thursday night against Fenelon Falls. Game time for this first game of the best of five series is 8 p.m.

In exhibition play on Friday night, Stirling Pee Wees edged by Belleville 4-3. Brett Haggerty picked up two markers while Barry Danford and Rodney McKeown added with singles.

House League Resumes Action

With ice time taken up by Curling and a Girls Tournament, Legion House League Hockey players have taken a two week rest but will continue with their schedule this Saturday morning.

In the Novice League, R.D. Cooke Cartage will meet DeJong Construction at 9 a.m. while Woodbeck Auto Parts and Bird's IGA will clash at 9:45 a.m.

Stirling Rotary and Legion Novice will play at 10:30 a.m. this Saturday morning while Riverside Construction and Elaine Footwear will meet at 11:30 a.m. in the Legion Pee Wee House League action.

Heart Fund Realizes $933

Heart Campaign organizers, Mrs. Jessie Warren and Mrs. Lulu Harlow are happy to announce that the sum of $932.75 was realized in the recent canvass. They wish to thank the 40 canvassers for Stirling and District, Public School Children; also the Boot and Shoe Union of Elaine Footwear for their cheque and all the generous support for this worthy cause.

St. John's Plans Lenten Suppers

Last Wednesday, members of the St. John's Anglican Church Men's Club met for a trial run of the forthcoming Lenten fish and chip suppers. Cooks practised cooking; table layers practised setting tables; pie slicers sliced pies; and tea makers made tea. Everyone was getting organized.

The Lenten suppers are a traditional part of Stirling. Floyd Armstrong says that he started cooking for St. John's in 1936 after much experience over a hot stove dating back into World War 1. When asked what made the fish and chip suppers such a success Floyd said, "Well, we give the folks value for their money, and we don't keep them waiting too long."

While the prices of fish and potatoes have risen since the 1930's, the quality of the suppers has remained high. Everett Cooke, who has been purchasing agent for all the supplies for over 25 years, says that quality is what keeps people coming back. He remembers when fish was 18 cents a pound and grease was 12 cents a pound. Those prices are no longer, but the quality of the food has been maintained.

The Lenten suppers are really a men's affair. Only Mrs. Elsie Armstrong helps directly. "She's really the Colonel Sanders of the fish and chips. She makes the batter with all the secret herbs and spices," said her husband, Floyd.

It is hoped that this year's suppers meet the successes of the past 36 or more years.

Stirling Girls Team Take Tourney Honors

It's nice when you can host a hockey tournament and end up the champion.

That's what Stirling did Saturday in an all-day tournament held at the local arena that saw participating teams from Don Mills, Toronto - Lambton, Burlington, Kingston, Picton, and Oshawa.

Stirling won the tournament s A Trophy after edging Burlington 3-2 in a game that referees called at the 18:40 mark of the third period after handing out three ten minute misconducts to Burlington players for fighting. There were 19 penalties in the game with Burlingtor taking 11 minors and 3 majors.

Sue Wright started the scoring off 30 seconds into the first period unassisted. Burlington scored at 13:20 of the period while Sharon Lessard put Stirling ahead at 14:50 of the period assisted by Joan Bailey and Sue Wright. Burlington tied it up at 14:32 of the second period. Shelly Farrell gave Stirling the championship with a goal at the 16:30 mark of the final period assisted by Kelly Dobson and Faith Little.

Don Mills downed Toronto-LAMBTON 8-2 to take the B Trophy at the tournament.

Stirling defeated Kingston in their first game of the tournament 6-2. Sue Wright picked up two goals assisted by Jane Bailey. Brenda Hay scored from Joan Bailey while Jane Bailey scored from Georgia Morrison and Sharron Lessard. Joan Bailey scored a single unassisted while Sharron Lessard potted Stirling's final goal from Jane Bailey.

In their second game, Stirling shut-out Oshawa 2-1 with Brenda Hay scoring from Joan Bailey and Jane Bailey scoring from Georgia Morrison.

In other games of the tournament, Oshawa edged Toronto-Lambton 5-4 Burlington shut-out Picton 5-0, Toronto-Lambton defeated Kingston 3-1, Don Mills downed Picton 14-1, and Burlington edged Don Mills 2-1.

Sue Wright was presented with the 'a' Trophy by Barry Wilson, assistant coach of the Stirling team, at the close of tournament. The 'B' Trophy was presented to Shirley Walker of the Don Mills team while Kathy Ferrare of the Don Mills team was presented with the Most Valuable Player Award of the tournament. Sharron Lessard was presented with the Stirling Girls Hockey team Most Valuable Player Award.

Pottery speaker at WI meeting

A small pottery studio differs from a large operation in many ways. You can have an article custom made in size, shape, colour, and design, and it is work you enjoy doing.

Mrs. Pearl Fletcher, a certified teacher of ceramics and pottery, told our eighty members and visitors of Hastings West District Women's Institute at Sidney Township Hall Wednesday Feb. 28, that clay is a lasting product and that making of pottery dates back five thousand years.

Mrs. Fletcher uses liquid clay in moulds as well as other good quality clay that she shapes into various forms. As the firing requires heat at 1900 degrees for four to five hours and a similar period of time after glazing, this is an expensive hobby but in time can be lucrative.

The president, Mrs. Roy Tucker, introduced the speaker and also Mrs. C. Barber the provincial board director. Mrs. Barber thanked the ladies for the articles of tatting done by Mrs. W. Johnston, to be sold at the convention in Banff.

Mrs. W. Ketcheson expressed appreciation to Mrs. Fletcher and presented her with a gift. Mrs. Fletcher gave one of her vases to be taken to Banff also.

Other numbers in the program included: A game conducted by Mrs. Smith, Chatterton; a humorous reading by Mrs. Ray Mohes, Sidney South; a solo by Mrs. Goldie McInroy, Stirling; a sing-song led by Mrs. M. Grills with Mrs. R. Burkitt at the piano, and tap dancing by Merebeth Burkitt of Unionville; a piano-solo - a medley of favorite tunes by Sharon Sager of River Valley; a reading by Mrs. F. Hamilton of Bay of Quinte.

A resume of a tour by the Hastings Historical Society of Prince Edward County by Mrs. A. Spencer curator of Wallbridge Branch concluded the evening's entertainment.

Hymn Sing At St. Andrew's

The third in a series of Sunday evening Hymn Sings will be held Sunday evening at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 8:00 p.m. The series is jointly sponsored by St. Andrew's, St. Paul's United Church and St. John's Anglican Church.

At the two previous services, the feature portion of the program has been the congregational involvement, both as singers and also in selecting which pieces were sung.

The service will be conducted by the minister of St. Andrew's, Rev. Roy A. Taylor, with Rev. John A. May and Rev. C. E. Staples also participating.

Guide News

On Tueday the meeting opened with the regular ceremony. After that there was a rousing game of World Centre Dodge Ball.

Chief Graham Mouck, instructed the guides in the fire Bridgade Badge which consists of the following requirements:

fire prevention
what to do if fire strikes artificial respiration
fire fighting

If the guides pass this work they will be awarded the Fire Brigade Badge.

On February 24 the Scouts and Guides enjoyed a skating party at Spring Brook rink, after which a delightful lunch of hot dogs and hot chocolate was served at the home of Mrs. G. Gorden Bailey.

News set in two places

Readers of the News-Argus may notice a mixture of type this week, but the end product should be an improvement over last week's paper. Two typesetting machines are in Toronto being repaired and overhauled and thus other arrangements had to be made to put out this week's paper.

Some type was set by The Trentonian and Tri-County News on Monday afternoon and the balance was set in Campbellford on Tuesday. It is expected our machines will be repaired and returned this week.

The other typesetting machine that is used to set headings, which gave problems last week was repaired in Toronto on Friday and is now in good condition.

Hold Timmy Night April 3rd

On Tuesday, April 3, at 8 p.m. in the Stirling Community Hall, the Rotary Club of Stirling will again sponsor, "Timmy Night," featuring one of the local children for whom Rotary is providing needed medical or other therapy through the Ontario Society for Crippled Children. Musical entertainment will again be provided by the Centennial Secondary School Senior Band. Immediately after this opener, the annual Easter Seal Campaign will begin, in support of which the people of Stirling area have established a proud record.

St. Andrew's host for Women's Service

The World Day of Prayer was celebrated in Stirling at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church last Friday, March 2. There was a goodly number of ladies in attendance.

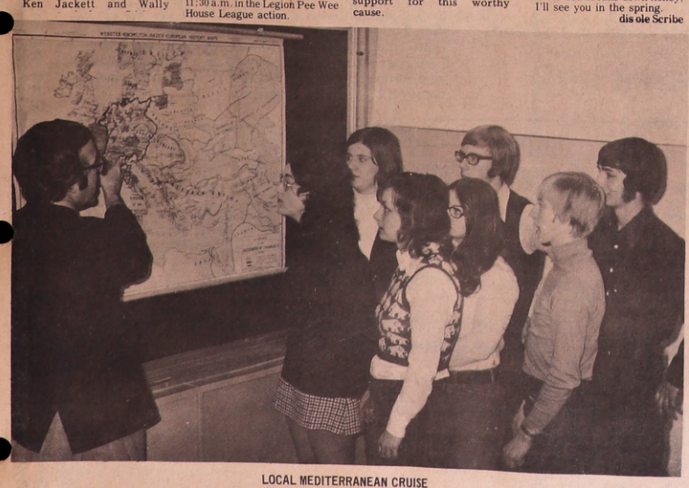
The program for the service had been originally planned by women of New Zealand of European and Moori descent, using for the theme, "Alert in Our Time."

Those taking part in the World Day of Prayer program were from: Mount Pleasant, Rawdon, Mrs. Robert Hoard and Mrs. James Hoard; St. John's Anglican, Mrs. Bruce Murray; St. James Roman Catholic, Miss Alice O'Donnell; Good Tidings, Pentecostal, Miss Marjorie Forbes; Grace Chapel, Mrs. George Sutherland and Mrs. E. Wannamaker; St. Paul's United, Mrs. Jack Bush, Mrs. Bert Jones, Mrs. E. Bogart, Mrs. Art. McConnell, Mrs. Ross Hart; St. Andrew's Presbyterian, Mrs. K. Tompkins.

Mrs. Harry Morrow was accompanist for the service, Mrs. Raymond and Mrs. Douglas Tyrer contributed a vocal duet with guitar accompaniment, entitled, "In the Upper Room."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beely of Belleville who had spent some time in India, showed slides they had taken while there. The pictures were from one extreme to another — some of the best and most elaborate state buildings to the poorest living quarters. The part the women take in the work was well demonstrated. The pictures brought out to the ladies how we should be more alert to things going on in other parts of the world.

The collection, $57.15, was forwarded to the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada for their distribution. It is used in many ways to spread Christianity throughout the world.



LOCAL MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE

Fourteen students from Stirling and area will be part of a group of students from Centennial Secondary School in Belleville attending a cruise through the Mediterranean during the March school break. Students from the school will join other Grade 12 students from secondary schools in Hastings County. Seven students from the Stirling group, Jeanette Hoard, Bonnie MacInnes, Virginia Pollock, Carolyn Richardson, Randy Whiteman, Ross Bailey and Lyle Pollock listen to Centennial coordinator, Gary Thomas as he points out the route the students will take during the cruise. — Photo by Thom Reynolds.

Merrie Bowlers

Everyone's wondering if 53 is a lucky number. Mildred Fraser's Dingalings have gotten on that number and she can't get them off. Just like old hens, they're setting there, now three weeks in a row. Mildred being a river dweller is thinking of taking them up there, giving those hens a ducking. Watch it, gals! That water's cold. It could be final. Those Meatheads of Lorna Wrightman's took the whole seven points on them.

That team's name may not sound brilliant but Lorna's sure getting results. Isobel Hutcheon's Belles rang up five points and those Dingbats of Bessie Hewton's came out of the belfry with two. They are leading with 95, Meatheads next with 91, The Belles 83, and we'll again mention Dingalings at 53.

There was good all round bowling. Ruth Glover sprung the high single of 261. Nellie Smith had 214, 249, also boasting high triple of 642. Other strong rollers were Barb Noble, 213; Isobel Hutcheon, 207; Dilly Montgomery, 213; Isabel Heasman, 207; Lorna Wrightman, 210, 245; Mildred Fraser, 211; and Helena Oosting 202 and 220. Helena has moved into the lead with high average at 180.

Stirling Bantam and Junior

On Sat., March 3 all teams came closer together as the last place Chargers took both games from the first place Strikers. The Hot Stuff and Triumphs divided their points 3 to 2 respectively. The Go Getters got an easy 5 points because two fellows on the Centre Pins let their team down and didn't bowl.

Points and Strikers 73; Hot Stuff 61; Triumphs and Go Getters tied at 58; Centre Pins 55; Chargers 52.

Bantam — Sandra Edgar bowled games of 175, 149 (324) for girl's high single and double. Cheryl McGee has high average of 125 with Margaret Wilcox close at 124 and Marianne Flieler 123.

Bantams Lead Quarter Finals

A 7 - 4 win Monday night gave the local Bantam Club their first game of the best-of-five Ontario Quarter-final series against Newcastle.

Craig Morton led off the scoring for Stirling in the first period assisted by Mark Reid while Cliff Reid potted a goal from Dale Kleinsteuber. Rob Jones gave Stirling a 3 - 1 lead at the end of the first period.

Dale Kleinsteuber picked up Stirling's only goal of the second period assisted by Cliff Reid. Newcastle also potted a goal in the period. Cliff Reid potted two goals in the final frame, both assisted by Mark Dobson. Dobson assisted on the final goal of the game as Dale Kleinsteuber picked up his second goal of the night. Newcastle potted two goals in the period.

There were eight penalties with Stirling picking up five minors. Stirling out-shot Newcastle 30 - 29.

The second game of this best of five series will be played in Newcastle this Friday night at 8 p.m. with the third game in Newcastle next Thursday night, March 15 at 8 p.m. The fourth game, if needed, will be played in Stirling on Saturday, March 17 at 8 p.m.

Stirling Bantams won their first exhibition game against the Peterborough Minor Bantams Friday night. The local club defeated Peterborough, 5 - 3. Stirling had been earlier beaten 5 - 0 and tied with Peterborough 2 - 2.

Dale Kleinsteuber led the scoring with three goals assisted by Cliff Reid and Mark Dobson. Mark Dobson picked up a single from Doug Bastedo and Wayne Andrews while Gary Utman scored the other marker from Doug Bastedo and Cliff Reid.

On Saturday night, Stirling Bantams edged by the Belleville B's 8 - 7. Dale Kleinsteuber, Mark Dobson, and Rob Jones picked up two goals each while Terry Bailey and Doug Bastedo added with singles.

Settle Novice Series Saturday

Tweed Novices tied their best of three Semi-Final Series with Stirling, Saturday afternoon in Tweed with a 5 - 0 upset over Stirling. Stirling took the first game of the series Thursday night edging Tweed 4 - 3 after a gruelling 20 minute overtime period. Mike Jackson led the scoring for Stirling with two goals while Brian Doxtator and Brian Wood added the other markers to give Stirling the win.

The third and deciding game of the series will be played in Tweed this Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m.

River Valley WI

MRS PERCY MAC MULLEN

Thursday, March 1st, saw 16 members of the River Valley Branch and 2 visitors, journey to the Brooke, Bond Foods Limited in Belleville.

There they were conducted on a very informative and pleasant tour. First viewing the huge store-rooms filled with raw spices from nearly every country of the world, also finished spices packed in their shipping cartons. Next watching these raw spices processed down to the pure spice, put on assembly lines and packaged. From there the group proceeded to the Meat section. Here the making of Oxo Cubes was the main item of interest.

The Lab. and Kitchen followed, both very important because the extensive care given to raw and finished products alike. The women returned to the River Valley WI. Centre to conduct business as usual. A letter was read from the Provincial President Mrs. Noblitt. Thank-you notes were received from several recipients of gifts while ill.

The Resolution Convener spoke of two petitions before the Public at the present time. One pertaining to the Government picking up the tab for the Olympic Games in Montreal, the other one in regards to the legalizing of abortions.

Arrangemtns were made to look after the Bingo games at Edward St. Manor for the month of March. The R.V.W.I. prize money given to Stirling Fair, goes towards three ways of using Ontario Fruit. "This Is Your Life in 4H Club Work Helen" was given by two members On behalf of the membership, Mrs. Gerald Brooks was then presented with WI cup and saucer.

A nominating Committee was appointed to bring in the slate of Officers for the 1973-74 year. A tasty lunch was provided by the hostess Mrs. Robert Hoard

Hold seminar for pensioners

Pensioners Concerned (Canada) a non political voluntary group who are touring Canada to interest RETIRED persons on fixed incomes to do something for themselves in preparing Governments to, "At least partially restore the Purchasing Power of their fixed incomes", will hold an open meeting at St. JOHNS Church, Campbellford, on TUESDAY, MARCH 13 at 2 p.m.

ALL RETI 2D persons and PENSIONEI regardless of race color, creed or political affiliation, as well as financial status, are invited to attend and learn how this voluntary organization has interested thousands, including Government Officials across Canada.

Admission is FREE and there are NO DUES. All that we ask is that you listen.

As of June 1971, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, there were 1,744,405 persons over the age of 65 or 7.7 percent of Canada's population. In June 1972, 1,777,650 persons received the Old Age Pension and 55.73 percent of these received part of, or all the Guaranteed Income Supplement. These people had either no other or a bare minimum income. In December 1971, the 1949 dollar, valued at 100 cents, was worth only 58 cents.

ALL RETIREES OR PENSIONERS are cordially invited to St. Johns CHURCH, CAMPBELLFORD, on Tuesday, March 13 at 2 p.m. to hear Mrs. Corabel Penfold, Past President of Pensioners Concerned explain how you, a RETIREE or PENSIONER can help you restore the purchasing power of your fixed income.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ketcheson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodgers left Sunday for a three week vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay McKeown of Stirling were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Clarence Runnals of Harold. Mrs. Allan McComb was a guest at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith of Guelph spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Basil St. Pierre and Laurie.

Mr. and Mrs. Art McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Basil St. Pierre were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Hoskin of Plainfield.

A bridal shower for Miss Peggy Sulkevicius, a March bride-to-be, was held last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Elaine Williams with Miss Laurie St. Pierre as co-hostess. After a few contests the bride opened her many gifts for which she very suitably replied. Lunch was served by the hostesses with the assistance of Mrs. Ruth Caswell and Mrs. Basil St. Pierre.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

Satisfactory work is being done by both teachers and pupils at the Stirling High School according to the report of Inspector Norman Davies which was tabled at the regular meeting of the Board of Education in the High School on Friday evening last. The report was adopted and its recommendations referred to the various committees concerned. Chairman C. I. Hatton presided and was supported by Messrs. H. R. Tompkins, J. B. Belshaw, M. J. Black, R. E. Fox, E. E. Macklin, Walter Wright, T.A. Patterson, and Dr. E. A. Carlton.

Although the snow banks are piled high on streets and highways in this district, Mrs. Claude Tucker, of this village is certain that "Spring is here". Returning home last night after a temporary absence, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker were surprised to find a small tree toad sitting on a table in the parlor. Just where the little fellow came from is a mystery, but he was as spry as could be and seemed to be enjoying his point of vantage, according to Mrs. Tucker who also reports seeing a caterpillar crawling along their veranda recently. "Surely Spring must be here."

Members of the Stirling Hydro Electric Commission attended the annual convention of the O.M.E.A. in Toronto this week. The local party included Chairman Roy Eggleton, Reeve H. J. Wells, R. B. Bell and F. A. Sprentall, local manager.

Two local hockey stars, Bert and Doug Bastedo, have lined up with Trenton Intermediates in their quest for an Ontario title. On Tuesday night Trenton and R.C.A.F. met in Belleville Arena in the first game of the district play-offs, with the latter winning 3-2 in a close battle. Both local players figured in the scoring summary. Unfortunately Bert suffered a gash in the back of his head when he fell over an opponentand struck his head on the ice.

Congratulations are extended to Mrs. Geo. B. Hagerman, who will celebrate her 97th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George White, Front St., on Friday March 5th. Mrs. Hagerman has the distinction of being the oldest living member of the generations, with Claire Stapely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stapely, of Guelph, and Paul Jeffs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jeffs, of Stirling, being great grandsons, and Robert Jeffs, of Stirling being a great, great grandson. Incidently the birthday of the two great grandsons falls on the same date as Mrs. Hagerman's.

The carnival advertised for Tuesday night was favored by good weather, and although it was rather cold a large number were in attendance. For the open race, 10 times around the rink, there were four entires: — W. Grain, W. McMillan, L. Kennedy, H. Grain. The two latter ones dropped out in the 5th or 6th round, and W. McMillan skated 9 rounds and a half when he also quit, leaving W. Grain to finish the half round alone. In the other race, 5 times around, there were three entries: — Mr. W. Mitchell and Mrs. H. Tulloch, Mr. L. Kennedy and Miss J. Descent. Harry Grain and Miss May Kennedy. The contestants all finished, and the last mentioned couple were close seconds at the finish.

There was a good attendance at the social held in St. Andrew's manse on Friday night last. The members of the Maple Leaf Mission Band had full charge, and filled their parts well. Those who wished to inspect the new dwelling were conducted throughout by boys appointed for the purpose. A short program was given in the drawing room by the members and refreshments were served free to all. A novel feature in the entertainment was a "Treasure Search" which consisted in tracing out mysterious directions and locating persons by descriptions given on instruction papers. This led the boys and girls in every direction until the place of treasure was found. The successful competitors were May Thompson, Robina Maynard, and Earl Tice, who won the prizes offered in the order named. The net receipts were $20, nearly all of which is contributed to Home Missions. This was the most successful entertainment the little folks have yet had.

In last week's News - Argus there was an item in Anson correspondence stating that a tramp whom Mr. John Johnston kept over night had taken a watch and chain belonging to Mr. Johston on his departure. Mr. Johnston informs us that he got on the trail of the tramp and followed him to this village, and that the tramp took him to where he had disposed of the watch, about three miles from Campbellford, where Mr. Johnston recovered his property. The tramp was afterwards arrested in Campbellford for stealing a fur overcoat, and sent to jail for 30 days.

A meeting of the local Liberal Conservative Association was held in M. Kee's Hall on Friday evening, Feb. 21st, and the following officers elected: President, C. J. Boldrick. Treasurer, W. S. Martin; Secretary, J. A. Warren.

During the winter months hockey is one of the most popular forms of amusement and entertainment in Canada. Quite frequently, however, the onlookers are treated to an exhibition of spiteful roughness that brings the game into disrepute. A few weeks ago a Nova Scotia player was sentenced to three months in jail for assault. One cannot but regret the necessity for such severe measures but at all costs clean sport should be preserved. If that is not possible it is time the match games were abolished.

CAPITOL ASSISTANCE

A few weeks ago, Environment Minister James Auld announced that Environment Ontario was raising the 50 percent ceiling on subsidies for capital construction of water and sewage works to 75 percent.

The announcement explained that this would bring the cost of sewage and water works within the financial grasp of smaller municipalities. But I would like to go into detail on how the average homeowner in a community affected by this changed grant structure would benefit.

First of all, speaking in terms of present needs in existing communities, this change could involve 50 sewage works and 29 water works programs. Over five years, the Ministry expects to spend $95.7 million on subsidies — $27.7 million more than would have been spent under the 50 percent grant structure.

Westport, a village in the Rideau Lakes north of Kingston, is one of the communities to benefit from the subsidy increase. Sewage works worth $1,037,496 and water works worth $564,508 are now under way.

With no provincial subsidy at all, the construction of these works would cost the average Westport homeowner $666.72 a year for the next 40 years. He might pay this through higher taxes or through higher service rates, but one way or another, he would have to pay or do without the improved water supply and sewage treatment he needs.

In 1969, a subsidy program was introduced to keep capital costs to the average homeowner down to $120 per year for sewage service and $100 for water service. Under these grants, Mr. Average of Westport's annual capital cost would be cut to $342.48.

But this year, when the ceiling was raised to 75 percent, Westport qualified for a 67.3 percent grant for sewage works and a 62.4 percent grant for water works. When the ceiling was raised, the homeowner charge objectives were adjusted to $139 and $110 for sewage and water works.

And the annual capital cost that will be charged against Mr. Average's tax bill or his service rates for these facilities will be $214.32.

The purpose of the whole grant structure is simple. It's set up to make sure that facilities essential for health and environmental protection are provided at a cost the citizen of the smaller communities can afford.

Davis announces more tax relief

TORONTO — Premier William Davis today announced increased provincial assistance to reduce the burden of education costs on municipal taxpayers in Ontario.

Mr. Davis said the increase in the government's share of the total elementary and secondary school costs from 58 to 60 percent will "help keep local mill rates down and prevent large increases in property taxes for education this year."

The new plan is contained in the 1973 general legislative grants regulations sent to Ontario school boards today by Education Minister Thomas Wells. It is part of Ontario's continuing program of municipal tax reform.

Mrs. Wells stressed that the provincial spending ceilings which limit annual increases in local school budgets to reasonable levels, will continue.

However, despite the ceilings, he said most school boards this year would have been forced to raise local property taxes to meet increased costs caused by inflation.

"We expect the higher level of provincial aid will keep any property tax increases to a minimum," the minister continued.

The Province's contribution to local education costs will increase by about $92 million over last year.

Mr. Wells said the new grants regulations will again contain a subsidy provision to protect property owners from an increase of more than one half of a mill on equalized assessment.

"The increased provincial aid is part of the government's overall aim of continuing to shift the municipal tax burden for education from local property owners," he said.

"With the ceilings, school boards will be required to seek economies in their operations. But they will continue to have the financial resources required to offer quality programs to students," the minister added.

Dr. J. Cornett Now Retired

Dr. J. W. D. Cornett, Executive Medical Director of McNeil Laboratories, Fort Washington, Pennsylvania has retired to Florida.

Dr. Cornett graduated from Queens University in 1945. After private practice in Stirling, Ontario, he joined Ortho Pharmaceutical (Canada) Ltd., in 1959 as Medical Director. In 1965, he assumed the same responsibility for another member of the Johnson and Johnson family of companies, McNeil Laboratories (Canada) Limited.

In 1968 he was appointed Executive Medical Director of McNeil in Fort Washington, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Cornett's permanent address is 1101 Golfside Drive, Sebring, Florida, 33870.

F. Chapman heads Hastings Liberals

A key figure in Quinte politics, Robert Temple last week stepped down as president of the organization he had led through formative years — Hastings Liberal Association.

The Belleville lawyer, who was the association's first candidate in the riding's first federal election in 1968, became president in 1970.

His successor is Frank Chapman, of Foxboro, a high school mathematics teacher, chosen president of a new executive by the association's annual meeting at Queen Mary School.

Mr. Temple told the meeting although he was not seeking re-election, he intended to work "in any way I can help to the party."

His party political service ranged from boyhood ward-campaigning in the 1930s to the Commons when he was elected MP for the former Hastings South riding in 1963-65.

But the fact, Mr. Temple is stepping out of an executive position doesn't mean he is retiring from political activity. Secretary of State Hugh Faulkner, the meeting's keynote speaker told the association.

"It just means he will be working as he has so well in the past . . . to try to get Liberals elected," said Mr. Faulkner.

The new executive produced one close election — that of Dr. John Hart, Belleville physician, who switched from Progressive Conservative affiliation at last October's federal election. Although on vacation, the meeting voted to let his name stand for vice-president after a nominator said the doctor had assented to the move. He was elected by one vote over Norman Cairns, campaign manager for Frank Follwell, Liberal candidate in the riding last year.

Other members of the new executive: — Gaye Post, Belleville, women's vice-president; Richard Rashotte, Tweed, young Liberals vice-president; Brian Knudsen, Belleville, secretary; Kerry Soden, Belleville, treasurer.

AMENDING NOTICE COUNTY OF HASTINGS

FURTHER NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the application of the Corporation of the County of Hastings to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario at its next Session for private legislation with respect to the composition of the votes on the County Council shall relate to the year 1975 and subsequent years, and not to the year 1974 as previously indicated.

DATED at Belleville this 20th day of February, 1973.

RONALD W. CASS, Q.C.,
27 Campbell Street,
P.O. Box 185,
Belleville, Ontario.
Solicitor for the Applicant.

Mount Pleasant

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Sharp and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews spent a recent visit with Mr. and Mrs. Eric Summers, Ottawa.

Mrs. Ross Jeffs canvassed the Anson line for the Heart Fund.

Gregory and Daniel Oliver, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oliver, spent a few days last week in the General Hospital, Belleville.

Malcolm Sharp attended a 4H Leaders Conference in Toronto.

Eight ladies from here attended the World Day of Prayer at Hoard's and five ladies attended the service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

SPRING BROOK

The February meeting of the Spring Brook Women's Institute was held in the basement of the United Church. A pot luck dinner was enjoyed by several members and one visitor.

After the dinner Mrs. Williams opened the meeting with some inspirational "advice for lent." She then led in the singing of O Canada, The Institute Ode, and The Mary Stewart Collect.

The minutes of the January meeting were read by Mrs. Barlow. A short business discussion followed.

Mr. Clayton Hall, the Arda representative from the Dept. of Agriculture in Stirling, was then introduced to the ladies, by Mrs. Cyril McKeown. Mr. Hall gave an informative lecture explaining the various programs being conducted by ARDA. A discussion period followed.

Mrs. McKeown voiced appreciation to Mr. Hall for coming and presented him with a gift. Pennies were collected for the "pennies for friendship fund". The roll call "Name an invention you would dislike doing without" was easily answered by everyone.

"Happy birthday" was sung to Mrs. Gerald Broadworth and Mrs. George Thompson. Poems were read by Mrs. Lorne McInroy, Mrs. Gerald Broadworth and Mrs. Wm. Barlow.

A reading "What is a farmer" was given by Mrs. Cyril McKeown. Three contests were conducted by Mrs. Fred McKeown and Mrs. Cyril McKeown who were in charge of the program for the afternoon.

The collection was taken and the meeting was closed with prayer.

Two Local men at 4-H Seminar

One hundred and twenty-six men and women from all parts of Ontario represented over 1,400 4-H leaders at the first Provincial 4-H Agriculture Club Leaders' Conference held in Toronto at the King Edward Hotel, February 23-24. The delegates spent two days participating in workshops and discussion groups which covered various aspects of the 4-H Agricultural Club program. These included resource materials for clubs, provincial and regional programs for the 4-H member, publicity and program promotion, 4-H on the national basis, new projects, and new approaches. "4-H and the Community" was the theme of Saturday's activities which included sessions on the image and the role of 4-H in the community.

Guest speaker at the banquet was the Hon. Wm. A. Stewart, Minister of Agriculture and Food. Special entertainment during the conference included visits to Maple Leaf Gardens for a hockey game, and to the O'Keefe Centre to see the broadway musical, "Two by Two".

Delegates attending the Provincial 4-H Agricultural Club Leaders' Conference from Hastings county were, Malcolm, Sharp, R.R.3, Stirling, representing Stirling 4-H Calf, and James Thompson, R.R.1 Stirling, representing Farm and Home Electric.

Ellis resolves meeting dispute

In a statement today from Ottawa, Jack Ellis, M.P. for Hastings indicated that his differences with the Boundaries Commission had been resolved. Mr. Ellis had been scheduled to appear before the Commission at 3:00 p.m. on February 20th, but found on arrival, that the Commission had adjourned at 2:30.

In a telephone conversation with the co-chairman of the Commission, Mr. Ellis received not only an apology for the oversight, but also an offer to reopen the Hearing for his benefit. Mr. Ellis stated: "Mr. Justice Wilson was most gracious and I admitted to angering very quickly under the circumstances."

As a result of the conversation, it was agreed that Mr. Ellis' statement would be mailed to the Commission and that it would be considered in the same manner as if it had been presented personally.

The Commission have now completed their hearing across Ontario and are now considering changes as a result of submissions received.

Seek nominations for Bowell award

Here is your opportunity to help select the recipient of the Sir Mackenzie Bowell Award for the Educator of the Year in Hastings County. This award is given annually to the person who has made the most outstanding contribution to education in the county.

The presentation will be made at a special breakfast on April 9, during Education Week in Ontario (April 8 - April 14).

The person selected for the award may be anyone connected with education, not necessarily a teacher or administrator. The contribution may have been to any school or educational authority in the county.

To assist the selection committee, we are requesting county residents to submit nominations; the final choice will be made from these. The choice will not be made on a numerical basis, but rather on the value of the contribution made by the person selected.

Every newspaper in Hastings County is carrying a nomination form. You will find it in this issue, and again in a later issue. Whether the form is used or not, we require the full name and address both of the person being nominated and of the person making the nomination -- together with a double-spaced, typed or clearly written statement of the contribution the person has made.

All nominations must be postmarked no later than March 17, 1973, and must be sent to : Mr. F.S. Beckley, North Hastings High School, Bancroft, Ont., KOLICO. Help the committee by providing nominations, and by providing the information that will assist in making a final selection.

MRS. EARLA ROBINSON

A former resident of Campbellford, Mrs. Earla Robinson of R. R. 4, Cobourg, passed away in Port Hope and District Hospital on Saturday, February 10, following a six month period of declining health. She had reached the advanced age of 87 years.

The deceased lady was the daughter of Edward McInroy and the former Anne Heath both long deceased.

She had been a resident of the Cobourg area for the past two and a half years, prior to which she made her home in Campbellford.

Predeceased by her husband the late Wm. Robinson, she is survived by her son, Bazil Robinson of R. R. 4, Coborg; two brothers, Stanley McInroy of Marmora and George McInroy of Belleville; one sister, Mrs. Harry Haslett (Mary) of Bonarlaw; three grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The late Mrs. Robinson was a member of the Anglican Church. Rev. Keith Adams of Christ Church, Campbellford, conducted her funeral service in the Weaver Funeral Home in Campbellford on February 12.

The pallbearers were Messrs. David Watts, Jim Robinson, Michael Robinson, Ward and Claude McInroy, and Glen Morton. Entombment followed in Mount Pleasant Cemetery Vault, Campbellford.

RANGER NEWS

The Rangers have been very active the last two weeks.

Feb. 18th they attended the church parade at St. James the Minor Church.

Feb. 20th they were the guest of the Guide Company for their Thinking Day Program.

The Rangers arranged a presentation of materials they had made in order to pass various badges. Mrs. Blackhall showed slides of different camps she had attended.

Then Feb. 24 and 25th they went to Camp Waupoos with the Belleville, and Marmora, Rangers. They all had a good time.

Feb. 27 the meeting was held at Mrs. Blackhall's home. District Commissioner Ada Schpieden attended, and all worked on St. Patrick's Day favors for the Stirling Nursing Homes.

There will not be a meeting Tuesday March 6th, due to exams.

Next meeting March 13th 7 p.m. at 52 Front St. W.

Four teachers attend FWTAO

250 women teachers from all over Ontario spent the weekend discussing who owns this country and why. The conference on Canadian nationalism, sponsored by the 33,000 - member Federation of Women Teachers' Associations of Ontario, was held in Toronto from Friday evening, February 23 to Sunday at noon.

Attending from this area were: Mrs. Diane Bisell, Mrs. Hilda Bray, Miss Frances Prest, Mrs. Pat Thompson, all of the Stirling - Marsh Hill Public School Unit.

Speakers included Barbara Daprato, Executive Director of the Committee for an Independent Canada, and Robin Mathews of Carleton University, outspoken critic of the Americanization of Canadian universities.

Three Members of Parliament, James Gillies, Ed Broadbent and Paul McRae spoke on their party's stand on foreign ownership and related matters. Chief Billy Diamond, an Indian leader from Quebec and Boyce Richardson, author of the book James Bay, spoke on the James Bay Power Project.

Alan Borovoy, general counsel for the Canadian Civil Liberties Association, talked about how citizens can bring about social change.

Burning Rectal Itch Relieved In Minutes

Exclusive Healing Substance Relieves Pain As It Shrinks Hemorrhoids.

If you want satisfactory relief from 'Itching Piles'—here's good news. A renowned research laboratory has found a unique healing substance that promptly relieves the burning itch and pain—actually shrinks hemorrhoids. This substance has been shown to produce a most effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In case after case "very striking improvement" was noted, even among cases of long standing. And this improvement was maintained over a period of months!

This was accomplished by a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulate growth of new tissue. Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation "H". Ask for it at all drug stores—satisfaction or money refunded.

Stirling Bowlers Zone Champs

On Sunday, March 11 at Par-O-Dice Lanes, Brighton, a Stirling team comprised of Paul Truaisch, Bernard Phillips, Glenn Gozzard, Bud Riseley and George Noble, captain, captured the Bay of Quinte Zone Championship of the Thomas Adams National Classified. They defeated three teams from D & A Lanes, Trenton, Brighton, C. F. B. Trenton and another Stirling team. Now they will represent Zone "K" in the Ontario Round on April 8 in Peterborough.

To become a member of a team, bowlers had to compete in the House Round in their own average classification which were for the men class No. 1 - average 0-165; class No. 2 - 166-185; class No. 3 - 186-205; class No. 4 - 206-225; class No. 5 - 226-up.

For the women the classes were: No. 1 - 0-150; No. 2 - 151-165; No. 3 - 166-185; No. 4 - 186 205; No. 5 - 206-up.

There were 100 men and women in the House Round giving them the right to enter two men's and two women's teams in the Zone Rounds. Other bowlers making the teams were Men's team No. 1 John Williams, Don Carr, Tom Hudson (replaced by runner-up Ralph Riseley), Ralph Scea and Ralph Park.

The women's team No. 1 was Ida Brown, Emma Roe, Katie Wilhelm, Rosa Spry, Sylvia Edgar. Team No. 2 was Marion Phillips, Marilyn Haggerty, Pat Harris, Lenora West and Verna Woodbeck.

The women's teams bowled at D & A Lanes, Trenton, with team No. 1 placing sixth and team No. 2 came seventh out of 10 teams. A Brighton team was the champion.

Winners of the Provincial Finals win an all-expense paid trip to Banff and will bowl in the National Finals at Olympic Lanes, Calgary, Alberta in May.

Final Hymn Service Held

The third in a series of evening Hymn Sing services was held Sunday night at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The series was jointly sponsored by the Anglican, United and Presbyterian Churches in Stirling, and were held a month apart.

The call to worship and prayer of invocation were given by the host minister, Rev. Roy A. Taylor, after which Rev. John May conducted the first portion of the program. The congregation was again asked to choose the pieces to be sung. They included "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory," "Let the Lower Lights be Burning," "Open my Eyes that I May See," and "How Great Thou Art." Rev. May read a short Scripture passage from Isaiah 56, and led in a brief prayer.

Rev. Taylor extended a welcome to those present and then conducted the combined choir in "Jesus is Coming Again," which was sung unaccompanied.

Rev. Charles Staples took charge for the next portion of the singing, which included "Fairest Lord Jesus," "Abide with Me," "Sing them over again to me," and "How Firm a Foundation." The second Scripture reading was from John 14. Rev. Staples also offered a brief prayer.

Rev. Taylor conducted the third portion of the service. The hymns sung were "Since Jesus came into my Heart," "When the Roll is Called up Yonder," "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms," "God will Take Care of You," and "The Day of Resurrection." He gave the hymnology of this piece before it was sung.

Birthday

A most enjoyable day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bush on March 4th. Twenty-seven sat down to a delicious oyster dinner, turkey and salads. The occasion was to celebrate the birthdays of Ernest Rosebush and Jack Bush.

The table centre piece was a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Ernest and Jack were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and cards from those present and also from Miss Mary Wood of Trenton and Elburn Bradshaw of Bloomfield. Ernest's sisters and brother were present for the occasion, also his nieces and nephews.

Stirling Youth Hurt In Crash

A Stirling man whose motorcycle collided with two cars on Highway 14 Thursday night is in Belleville General Hospital with a broken hip and bruises.

David Parsonson, 20, of 215 North St., was southbound one mile north of Stirling when he pulled out to pass a car driven by Richard Williams of Frankford.

The two vehicles made contact and the car, swinging out of the way, skidded into the ditch on the west side of the road.

Mr. Parsonson's motorcycle continued out of control, slamming into a parked car on the east side and throwing the rider 200 feet down the road.

Robert Loshaw of Frankford, owner of the parked vehicle, was sitting in the driver's seat at the time but was not injured.

Senior Citizens club meets

Another red-letter day was enjoyed at Senior Citizens last Thursday. After eight rounds of euchre Luella Bronson and Gord Bailey took high honours and Harry Heasman and Mrs. Powell brought up the rear. It was Ross Hoard's birthday and his two daughters-in-law Lois and Mary saw to it that every one got royally fed. All of Ross's grandchildren served. A big cake was presented in his honour. Gord Bailey (wearing a Florida tan) was also celebrating a birthday. The big question was who (WOOD) know who made his big birthday cake. Some suggested that maybe Dorothy (WOULD). These two cakes along with ice cream was served to all. There were several guests present for the occasion.

Rev. Wib Cox called and also present were Ken and Ferne Weaver, Hugh and K. Jones, Harry Heasman, James Hoard, Bessie West and we were happy to note that Mame Morton was again back with us. We welcomed two visiting Senior Citizens Mrs. Harry Orr and Mrs. H. Powell of Stockdale.

Ken and Ferne Weaver presented Ross and Gord with a big box of chocolates which they shared with us. It was interesting to note that there were four men present and all over 88 years. Ross Hoard, John Holmes, Murn Stapley and George McMullen. These four are all hearty and still going strong. In fact Ross recently passed his driving test with flying colors.

Peewees upset Fenelon Falls 14-2

Stirling Legion Pee Wees lead the best of three Ontario Quarter Finals one game to none after handing Fenelon Falls a convincing 14-2 upset last Thursday night at the local arena.

Stirling gained a 3-0 first period lead after Bill Faulkner scored unassisted at the three minute mark of the period, Rodney McKeown scored from Faulkner at the four minute mark, and Brett Haggerty netted a goal from Barry Danford at 15:20 of the period.

Barry Danford scored twice in the second period, both assisted by Brett Haggerty, Bob Patterson scored unassisted at the 3:55 mark of the period while Rodney McKeown scored unassisted at the five minute mark of the second frame. Bill Faulkner assisted by Barry Danford gave Stirling a 8-0 lead at the end of the second.

Fenelon Falls picked up its only goals at the 1:50 and 4:05 marks of the final frame with Philips getting the credit.

Danford completed his double hat-trick of the night scoring four goals in the final frame. Assisting on his goals were Roger Reid, Jeff Bush, and Brett Haggerty. Bill Faulkner also netted a goal in the period unassisted. Rodney McKeown rounded out his hat trick scoring from Bob Patterson at 15:15 of the period.

There were 14 penalties in the game with Stirling receiving six of them. Fenelon Falls picked up the others including a 10 min. major.

The second game of this series was played Tuesday night of this week in Fenelon Falls. Results were not available at press time.

Stirling were edged in an exhibition game 6-5 by Campbellford Saturday night. Darrell Bush netted two goals while Barry Danford, Brett Haggerty, and Rodney McKeown added with single tallies.

The local Pee Wee team will play an exhibition game against a major team from Sudbury Saturday night at the village arena at 6:30 p.m.

Personals

Mr. Allen Taylor, son of the Rev. Roy and Mrs. Taylor, and Miss Elvi Pakkanen, both of Guelph University, were weekend guests of Allen's parents, at which time the couple announced their engagement and intention to be married in August. A formal announcement will be made at a later date.

Following the third in the series of Hymn Sing Services held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening, the Rev. John May and Mrs. May, and the Rev. Charles Staples were entertained at the Presbyterian Manse.

Sunday, March 4th visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Whyte included Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie White, Travis and Amanda, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Whyte, all of Boulter, Ont.

Miss Bryce Whyte who underwent surgery is feeling much better now and will be able to attend school again this week.

Sunday, March 11 Mr. and Mrs. Dawn Hannah and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Whyte and family. Dawn and Dorothy live at Palmer Rapids, Ont.

River Valley card party

River Valley Women's Institute sponsored their tenth card party at the Centre on Friday evening, March 9th, with seven tables in play. A few visitors were in attendance.

The Citizenship and World Affairs group provided the refreshments and were in charge of the arrangements.

The prizes were:- Ladies first, Mrs. Hubbard Faulkner, second, Mrs. George Sarles; Mens high, Vincent McAuley, Frankford, second, Harry Jeffries.

There will be two more card parties in March.

Nursery Pupils Visit Farm

A visit to the farm was the latest field trip for members of the Stirling Co-operative Nursery School.

Monday saw both the morning and afternoon groups visit the Cooney Brothers Farm on the 6th Concession of Rawdon Township.

The highlight for the afternoon group was being on the scene for a first hand look at the birth of a calf. The Cooneys have 115 head of milking cattle.

The boys and girls had an opportunity to view milking equipment and saw milk being pumped into a truck which would take it to the dairy for processing. They also saw a large milk storage tank.

Also included in the tour of inspection were four large tractors and a grain grinder.

Following the tour of the farm, the afternoon group was invited to the Marvin Cooney residence where Mrs. Cooney served milk, cheese and crackers.

The monthly meeting of the Nursery School will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at St. Paul's United Church Sunday School centre. Guest speaker will be Rick Williams of Loyalist College who will give an address on The Early Detection of Learning Disabilities.

SPRING IS FLOODING CREEK'S BANKS

Early break-up of ice in the Rawdon Creek has caused the creek to over flow its banks at the Henry St. bridge flooding part of the village Ball Park. Unseasonably warm weather for this time of the year has brought many people to believe and hope that Spring has sprung early this year.

The Bell Ringers were pretty quiet this week; seems the strikers were off-tilt. Barb Noble showed herself well with high single of 251, high triple 618, and right now holds high average of 180.

Other over 200 rollers were Helena Oosting 207; Tillie Prest 205; Betty Hubble 212; Lorna Wrightman 201.

Each team pauled in points this week. Bessie Hewton's Dingbats got 3 for a total of 98 against Lorna Wrightman's Meatheads who bragged 4 for a total of 95. Isobel Hutcheon's Belles rang up 5 points to raise them to 88 against Mildred Fraser's Dingalings who got 2. Those Dingalings have quit setting - just raised their total to 55. After a team rests a bit they can be quite determined, so you other gals better take care.

Wed. Night Ladies League

On Wednesday, March 7th the Chasems took all 7 points from the Y's and the Wanderers were 4 to 3 winners over the Strugglers. Present point standings are:

Monday Night Men's League

With six weeks of the regular season left to bowl the Odds and Ends are struggling desperately to close the gap between themselves and the Maple Leafs and have it narrowed down to eight points between 1st and 2nd place. On Monday night past the Odds and Ends were 5 to 2 winners over the Alley Cats and the Straw Dogs were 4 to 3 winners over the Maple Leafs. In the late encounter the Legion were 5 to 2 winners over the Good Guys.

Ray Poste still holds high average with 218 and Ralph Park bowled 277 and 751 for the night's high single and triple.

Ralph Scea made a very rare shot when he spared a split. After picking the five and three pin with his first ball he came back with his second ball and got the three and two pin on his right and the two pin on his left.

Points as of March 12 are:

Legion	77
Odds and Ends	97
Maple Leafs	105
Good Guys	91
Straw Dogs	63
Alley Cats	71

Friday Night Mixed League

On March 2, 1973, Ralph Riseley's Aces were 5-2 winners over Pete Lippert's Deuces and Don Carr's Diamonds wee 5-2 winners over Robert Sararas' Jokers.

This tied Robert's and Ralph's teams with 105 points apiece thus tying them for first place. Those Diamonds of Don's are next with 78 points and Pete's Deuces have 65 points. Don't despair Pete, one team has to take last place.

In "A" group for the ladies Jessie Riseley decided it was time she got her name in the paper and bowled a 276 game for high single and high triple of 636, Verna Woodbeck is working very hard at keeping her high average of 194. In "B" group for ladies Muriel Riseley thought it best to stick with Jess and she bowled high single of 200 and high triple of 516. Barbara Sararas and Irene Lippert are sticking close together also with high average of 154.

For the men Doug Scea bowled 297 for high single in his BRAND NEW PANTS! Ralph Park bowled high triple of 680 and is holding fast to his high average of 212. Other games of 200 and over were bowled by Garnet Searles 214, 211, 201. Don Carr 205, 203; Gloria Carr 204; Lorraine Searles 206; Bud Riseley 212, 222, 224; Robert Sararas 210, 212, 210; Ted Mead 272; Ralph Park 268, 201, 211; Ralph Scea 219, 222, 226; Harold Morgan 206; Ralph Riseley 265; Bill Reid 205 and Clive White 211.

On March 9, Don Carr's Diamonds took 7 points from Ralph Riseley's Aces while Pete Lippert's Deuces took 5 points from Robert Sararas' Jokers giving them 2. Robert Sararas' team is back in first place with 107 points while Ralph Riseley's team is close behind in second place with 105 points. Don Carr's Diamonds are next with 85 points and Pete Lippert's team coming up fast with 70 points.

In "A" group for the ladies Gloria Carr bowled high single of 248 and high triple of 618. Verna Woodbeck still holds high average of 193.

Novices Win Tweed Series

Stirling Novices earned the right Saturday afternoon to enter into the finals after edging Tweed in the third and deciding game of the semi-final series 4-3. Stirling took the first game 4 - 3 while Tweed upset Stirling in the second 5-0.

The score in Saturday's game was tied at the end of the first period with Brian Doxtator picking up Stirling's two markers assisted by Mike Jackson. Brian Wood unassisted made it 3-2 for Stirling at the end of the second period while Brian Doxtator assisted by Bruce Wood gave Stirling the win in the final frame. Tweed scored their final goal in a loosing cause late in the final period.

Stirling will meet either Frankford or Madoc in the finals.

Reflections

Periodically there comes in a person's life a time of sudden arrest, when things take an abrupt new course, or a chapter ends. These times can include departure from home to attend school or get married; sudden upheaval caused by illness or death; or the selling of a home. This was brought home to us personally last weekend as the last piece of furniture was removed from what has been home for nearly three-quarters of our life, and goodbye was said to the aging but comfortable house in Gravenhurst.

Saturday was a day of memories in many respects as many of the items of furniture that were a part of our life for as long as we can remember, almost, were either sold or brought home to Stirling. Each time we checked a room to see if everything desired was taken, it was not hard to notice a nakedness that made one think back.

There were dishes that are now only good for removal in the garbage, having served their usefulness in years gone by; items of clothing that are beyond use; pictures that served their purpose on the wall in that home but would not suitably mesh with the decor of others; furniture that is beyond use in the same manner, or which others had better use for than we; small trinkets that have been collected over many years, and which now are passed along to others.

Wandering about the house with the prospective owners, it was easy to recall how it had once been, with two bedrooms which later became a garage and later again bedrooms; the removal of the top storey and its four bedrooms, and also the two rooms which had been on the back of the house when we first went there. We looked at the basement that was built after the Second World War to replace the home in the ground, and recalled our first experiences with unwanted water, which came in over a foot deep one spring night. The present design of the house is so familiar it seems to have always been that way at times, but then something else twigs the memory cells and previous patterns are recalled.

Looking back on the little house, as it now is, a lot of times can be recalled; a lot of memories reviewed; many visits with relatives and friends; many hours of labors of all kinds that go on in a home and garden. As we lived here during the formative years of schooling and involvement in other activities, we can recall those with whom we grew up, and this in itself opens up a new avenue of mental activity, wondering where they might be now and their own circumstances.

The next time we visit the old home town, the house will belong to some one else. For the first time since leaving home over twenty years ago, we cannot go there as welcome residents, but from the invitation of the new owners, at least as a visitor to see how things have changed. It will seem different and difficult for a few times, but this is one of the prices of progress. We hope this home serves the new owners as well as it has those who have left.

25 Years Ago

Some 35 members of Stirling Lodge, No. 69, A.F. & A.M., paid a fraternal visit to Golden Rule Lodge, Campbellford, on Monday night. During the meeting the officers of Stirling Lodge, under the leadership of Wor. Bro. J.L. Good conferred the first degree on two candidates. At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The local brethren spent a most profitable and pleasant evening and thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of the Campbellford brethren.

A large crowd was present for the presentation of "The Grouch," a three-act play by the pupils of the Stirling High School, under the direction of Mr. D.H. Garrison, in Stirling Theatre on Thursday night last. The various parts were well portrayed, with special mention going to Misses Gena Vanderwater and Gladys Clarke and Mr. Kenneth Black for their fine work. The various acts were interspersed by orchestra numbers by the "Teen Agers" vocal numbers by Misses Margaret Haggerty and Joan McCurdy, accompanied by Marilyn Eggleton, and a piano solo by Barbara Brazill.

Stirling Midgets took another stride in their quest for an O.M.H.A. Midget "C" Championship last night at the local arena, when they downed the classy Sundridge squad of pucksters 15 to 6 in the first game of the Provincial Semi-Finals. The game was played on a perfect sheet of ice before a crowd of close to a thousand fans who jammed their way into the local ice igloo to witness two smart teams in action. It was a particularly clean game, with only one minor penalty marring an otherwise perfect game.

A LOOK AT AIR

Air pollution is a bad thing. Nobody argues with that statement any more. But do we all have the same reasons for making it? I doubt it.

To an environmentalist, the major issue might be the long-term effect of emitted pollution on the atmosphere -- possibly an increase or decrease of gases that could bring back the ice age or cause the melting of the polar ice cap and the inundation of much of our land.

The transportation authorities see air pollution as a factor in reduced visibility -- in its simplest terms, a cloud of smoke from a roadside fire that can cause an auto accident.

The naturalist looks at pollution's effects on plant or animal life, possible a factor that can lead to the extinction of a species.

To an engineer, air pollution is a cost and depreciation factor -- the reason a building must be cleaned every 10 years and the matter of budgeting for a 0.5% wasteage of bridge steel every year.

But the factor most of us consider when we think about air pollution can't be treated as an engineering expense -- human health cannot be written off as a budget item. We would be outraged at the suggestion that a few deaths could be counterbalanced by a budgetary saving on pollution controls.

Air quality standards in Ontario are set to keep pollution levels low. That's deliberate. We can't base pollution control on how much an average healthy person can take because there are a great many of us who are not average.

The standards have to protect the most susceptible.

They deal in terms of parts per million, even parts per billion. Picture it this way. Stand on a scale and pick up a postage stamp. You just increased your weight by one part per million. Now with 1000 people in the scale and that one pastage stamp, you have an increase of 1 part per billion.

That's precision measuring.

Of course the technology that provides this sort of precision for measuring and for control is one of the factors that has caused a general and consistent improvement in air quality in Ontario over the past few years.

Weekly Meditation

CONTRIBUTED BY STIRLING CLERGYMEN

(By James F. McGarvey)

Basically there are two commandments; (1) to love God and (2) to love our neighbor. We cannot claim to love God if we do not love our neighbor. There are many ways to show our love of neighbor. There is a project under way at this time which show that love in a very meaningful way. I am referring to the project "10 Days For World Development." The major thrust is under way at this present time - March 9 to 19th.

One news release expressed it this way:-

Canadian church leaders will take the educational campaign trail across the nation for 10 days to stimulate a greater awareness of the problem of the Third World, and encourage a responsible reaction. This program is organized by the Development and Relief Agencies of the Anglican, Catholic, Lutheran, Presbyterian and United Churches.

This is the first time that the heads of churches are taking such an active part in the education project - a measure of the seriousness with which Canadian Churches view the injustices built into the present trade and aid agreements reached by advanced industrial nations of the west with the poor underdeveloped countries of Asia, Africa and Latin America.

"Ten Days" is expected to provoke discussion on the following questions:

1) Will we continue to pay inadequate prices and allow exorbitant profits for basic agricultural commodities, such as coffee, cocoa, rice and sugar, while millions of workers and their families in the THIRD WORLD suffer hunger, illiteracy and disease?

2) One - quarter of the world's population, including affluent Canadians, controls and consumes three-quarters of the earth's resources and services. Are we prepared to cease striving for more and more, and strive instead for JUST distribution?

3) Why cannot Canadians be more vocal within the councils of rich nations? Shouldn't our inclueence always be on the side of sharing decision-making power in trade, tariff and monetary reform with developing nations?

4) The quality of Canadian foreign aid is currently at 0.5% of this country's Gross National Product. What must we do to reach the 1% goal recommended by the Pearson Commission?

In a common declaration on justice, the five churches said: "Justice in the world is the basic human issue. We are committed to seeking to narrow the gap between the rich and the poor, by the reducing excessive production and consumption so that Canadian resources and productive capacity can be put to more just use, by supporting the research and action on the impact of private agencies on international investments, trade and aid."

Those who are involved in the 10 Days for World Development project are showing real love of neighbor. They are doing so because they love God and He has commanded that we love our neighbor. When we see the need that our neighbor has, there is no way we can say "NO."

CUB CORNER

On March 12th, 1973, our meeting started at 7 p.m. sharp as usual with Duty Six Steven Marko, Steven Adams, Tony Bensley and Sixer Michael Wells leading the grand howl.

30 Boys out of a total of 32 turned out for this meeting. Dave and Donny Lake were unable to attend because of illness. We hope they will recover soon and be at our next meeting.

Our study period covered mainly star work. The group working on the blue star were taken on a visit, under the supervision of Bagheera, to the O.P.P. Station in Belleville. The boys enjoyed their visit immensely which proved to be extremely interesting to the boys and Bagheera herself. Each boy will be writing a report on this trip as part of the blue star requirements.

Game session was led by Baloo and Akela, with Baloo taking part and a half hour of fun was enjoyed by all.

The following boys were awarded badges:- Steven Marko, House Orderly and Toymaker; Leslie Tucker, House Orderly; Michael Wells, Music; Steven Adams, Collector; Michael Sine, Gardeners.

Keep up the good work.

Donny Ashley was invested and welcomed into the pack by Akela.

Note: Next meeting will be on Mar. 26th.

Akela.

Midgets drop Pickering 2-0

Pickering Midgets thought size counted--they lost, and the Stirling Midgets thought few penalties and good game play counted--they won.

Stirling Midgets anticipated a tough fight after they squeezed by Pickering Friday night 9-8 but goals in the late second period and early third period Saturday night in Pickering gave Stirling the Ontario Quarter Finals two games straight. The local team edged Pickering 4-3. The win earned them the right to meet a team from Shelburne in the best of five Ontario Semi-finals.

Stirling tied the score at the end of the first period after Rob DeJong potted a goal assisted by Stan Myers. Pickering picked up a goal early in the second period but Glen Detlor's goal assisted by DeJong tied the game. Dave Jeffs netted the go ahead goal assisted by Glen Detlor and Ken Jackett. Rob De Jong gave Stirling a 4-2 third frome lead. Kevin Solmes and Dave Jeffs assisted on the play. Pickering narrowed the score with a goal in the late stages of the period.

In Friday night's 9-8 contest Pickering led off the scoring in the first period with goals at the seven and nine minute marks. Ken Jackett scored Stirling's first goal after two previous attempts by Jackett were fouled by Pickering which gave them penalties. Rob DeJong and Dave Jeffs assisted on the first goal. Rob DeJong moved in from left wing and scored on a pass from Ken Jackett and Stan Myers at the 13:15 mark of the first period. Pickering took a 3-2 first period lead on a goal from Lawrence McGee, the visiting team's biggest player.

McGee opened the scoring in the second frame on a shot from just inside the Stirling blue line. The shot took Whattam on the inside left corner. John Ross scored the only other goal of the period assisted by Wally Blakeley and Dave Jeffs. The goal followed a shuffle in front of the Pickering goal with Pickering defense clearing the puck twice. Stirling defense picked up the puck and put it back near the Pickering crease. Ross placed the puck under the sprawled Pickering goal tender.

Stan Myers scored for Stirling at 1:21 mark of the final frame on a shot from just inside the blue line that beat the goalie to the lower part of the net. Ken Jackett and Kevin Solmes assisted on the play. Myers set up the second Stirling goal of the period after he moved in and took a shot from just inside the blue line. The goal tender came up with it and cleared it to the corner where Myers fought for the puck and passed it out to the front of the net. DeJong managed to push the puck by the Pickering goal tender. Ken Jackett also assisted on the play.

Pickering scored at 3:37 of the final period as Mike Carters shot at Whattam whose stick stopped the puck. The puck came out and was deflected back into the Stirling net by a Pickering player. Pickering's goal tied the game at 5-5. Glen Detlor set up the next Stirling goal with a shot from inside the blue line, which the Pickering net minder deflected to the corner. Stan Myers took the puck from the corner and shot it at the goalie. The Pickering goal tender gloved the puck but it slipped through into the net. Pickering picked up the next two goals to take a one goal lead. Rob DeJong tied the game up at the 9:15 mark of the period assisted by Ken Jackett and Stan Myers. Pickering scored their last goal of the game at 14:20. Pickering in an attempt to keep their 8-7 lead started playing rough forcing them to suffer a number of penalties. Stan Myers scored his third goal of the game at 16:55 of the period assisted by Wally Blakeley and Dave Jeffs. Myers gave Stirling the win at 18:18 of the period assisted by Rob DeJong and Ken Jackett.

Referees assessed Pickering 14 penalties, one major and Stirling six penalties.

The first game of the best of five Ontario Semi-finals will be played in Shelburne this Saturday afternoon at 5 p.m. A spectator bus has been arranged for this game. The second game of the series is scheduled for this Monday night in Stirling at 8:30 p.m.

Two Midget players' names were inadvertently left out of last week's Juvenile story. Additional help was given to the Juvenile team in their loosing attempt against Frankford by Midget forward Ken Jackett and Midget goalie Terry Bush.

Bantam Series Tied Game Each

Newcastle Bantams tied the best of five Ontario Quarter finals Friday night edging Stirling 3-2. Stirling took the first game last Monday night 7-4.

Newcastle took a 2-0 second period lead and held it to the 10 minute mark of the final frame when Wayne Andrews picked up Stirling's first goal unassisted, Mark Dobson assisted by Cliff Reid tied the score with 30 seconds left. Pickering took the puck from the face-off and scored picking up their winning goal.

The third game of the series will be played in Newcastle this Thursday night with the fourth game in Stirling this Saturday night at 8 p.m.

Burning Rectal Itch Relieved In Minutes

Exclusive Healing Substance Relieves Pain As It Shrinks Hemorrhoids.

If you want satisfactory relief from 'Itching Piles'—here's good news. A renowned research laboratory has found a unique healing substance that promptly relieves the burning itch and pain—actually shrinks hemorrhoids. This substance has been shown to produce a most effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In case after case "very striking improvement" was noted, even among cases of long standing. And this improvement was maintained over a period of months!

This was accomplished by a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulate growth of new tissue. Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation "H". Ask for it at all drug stores—satisfaction or money refunded.

PM To Open Easter Drive

Prime Minister Trudeau will officially launch the Ontario Society for Crippled Children's 1973 Easter Seal campaign by purchasing the first sheet of seals and addressing 500 Easter Seal service club representatives from south-western Ontario at a Campaign Kick-off Dinner in the Ivanhoe Club, London, on Wednesday, March 21.

The campaign runs until Easter Sunday, April 22, and this year's provincial objective is $1,675,000.

The dinner will commence at 7:30 p.m., after which the Prime Minister will officially purchase the seals from Canada's national "Timmy," Danny Musgrove of Saskatchewan, and Ontario's "Timmy," 10 year old Ricky Ware of Scarborough.

Expect 30 Vie For Beauty Crown

The final countdown is underway towards the 19th annual Miss Eastern Ontario Beauty Pageant at Perth on March 23 and 24 and officials have expressed the feeling this may be one of the best in sometime.

Frankly, contestant entries have not reached the expected levels mainly due to the extremely puzzling lack of response from Canada's Capital, Ottawa. The city stands out as one of the rare centres in the Eastern Ontario region not to show interest in the Pageant this year.

Belleville has come on strong this year with two entries now in and the city's Jaycees expressing keen interest in future participation. Cornwall, Tweed, Richmond, Brockville, Pembroke, Carleton Place, Iroquois, Kingston, Osgoode, Kars, Lanark, Navan, Arnprior have all shown very active entry interest. The total entry indication is 30.

The deadline for entries is March 19th. Ages for contestants is 17 to 24 as of March 23, 1973 and NO exceptions can be made, and contestants must be single.

The judging panel was completed this week with one from Montreal, two from Toronto, one from Watertown, N.Y., and one from Syracuse, N.Y. The executive view the five-member panel as one of the best lined up in the 19 years of the Pageant. Names of the judging panel are not released until the night of the Pageant.

Also announced as confirmed this week were the Masters of Ceremony for 1973, Perennial M.C. Bill Luxton of Ottawa is unable to attend but the Pageant is fortunate in securing the services of Les Lye and Chuck Collins, both of Ottawa, as co-M.C.'s. Both are very well known in Eastern Ontario and are exceptionally talented and very competent radio personalities, both past and present, and experienced M.C.'s.

Announced as guests of the Pageant along with Miss Dominion of Canada, Bonny Brady, are Sherry Pollock, the 1972-73 Ontario Dairy Princess from Ripley, Ont., and Beth James, the present Lanark County Dairy Princess from Almonte. Mr. and Mrs. John Bruno, executive directors of the Miss Dominion of Canada Pageant will attend as well as Paul Dick, MP and Mrs. Dick, and Doug Wiseman MPP, and Mrs. Wiseman. Valerie Hansen, the 1971 Miss Eastern Ontario is also a guest.

Study Free Calls For Manpower Here

Jack Ellis, M.P., Hastings, has received word from the Minister of Manpower & Immigration that a pilot project to provide toll-free telephone service to the Canada Manpower Centre in Belleville will be undertaken as soon as practicable.

The matter was first brought to Mr. Ellis' attention on an open line program on CJBQ early in February. He took the matter up with the Minister immediately, in the House of Commons and followed up by letter and personal representation. "It was clearly unfair," said Mr. Ellis, "that those wishing to contact the Canada Manpower Centre in Belleville from any telephone outside the immediate area, should be penalized by long distance rates."

The Minister further stated that with some 400 Canada Manpower Centres in Canada, the study will take some time and the cost implications will be important.

Mr. Ellis was pleased that Belleville had been chosen as the pilot study area and felt it would help to join together, the many parts of the County of Hastings in yet another service.

CHARLES L. LOTT

In failing health for the past year, Charles Layland Lott, 27 North St., Stirling, died Tuesday in the Towers Nursing Home. He was 72.

Born at Boulter in North Hastings, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Lott and had lived in Stirling for the past two years. A retired laborer, he was a member of Grace Chapel, Stirling.

Aside from his wife, the former Mary Elizabeth Gibbs, he is survived by a brother Arthur Lott of Alliston, and two sisters Mrs. George (Gladys) Lucas of Belleville and Mrs. Nellie Roberts of Kingston. Two brothers George and Gilbert, and a sister Mrs. Julia Davidson predeceased him.

The funeral was held Thursday from the Hogle Funeral Home with service in the chapel at 3 p.m. Entombment in Stirling Cemetery Vault.

RESCUE SAW - A GIFT OF YARDMAN

Graham Mouck, right, chief of the Stirling Fire Department and Bill Blakeley, left, member of the department, inspect a new rescue saw donated to the Village Department by the Belleville Yardmen Benefit Fund. Robert Turcotte, treasurer and member of the board of directors made the presentation at a Muscular Distrophy Show in the local Community Hall Saturday night. Mr. Turcotte also presented the Village firemen with a sizable donation to the Muscular Distrophy Campaign.

MUSCULAR DISTROPHY FUNDS PRESENTED

Bill Blakeley, right, member of the Stirling Fire Department presents a cheque to Jack Mathews, chairman of the Quinte Area Muscular Distrophy campaign. Local firemen are waging a campaign this month, canvassing for donations to Muscular Distrophy. The presentation of the funds was made at the annual Muscular Distrophy Show held in the local Community Hall Saturday night.

News-Argus Notebook

NEW PRESIDENT -- Jack Bush, former reeve of Sidney Township and long time worker in local politics, was elected recently as the new president of the Quinte Liberal Association.

TEAM IN SEMI-FINALS -- The Tweed BP Oil Kings, which has several Stirling area players on its roster, is currently involved in the semi-final playoffs of the Trent Valley Intermediate Hockey League with Campbellford. The next game of this series will be played Friday night in Tweed at 9 p.m. Playing for the team from this area are Glen and Grant Hagerman, Roger Smith, Doug Potts and Doug Bolte.

WET WEEKEND -- Many Stirling residents found the past weekend a damp experience as water seeped into many basements during the nearly continuous rain Saturday and snow storm Sunday. Village work crews were busy repairing the pump on Front Street West which went out of commission Saturday, and also keeping an eye on the pumps on Henry Street which worked overtime to try and keep up with the heavy runoff.

Fenelon Falls Ousts Stirling Pee Wees

Stirling Legion Pee Wees were unable to capture the Ontario Quarter Finals from Fenelon Falls after 6-4 and 8-5 defeats Tuesday and Friday nights. Stirling won the first game of the best of three series with a convincing 14-2 trouncing but their luck took a turn for the worse.

Brett Haggerty led the scoring off for Stirling Friday night in the third game of the series. Roger Reid and Bruce Myers assisted on the play. Jamie Phillips tied the score at the end of the first period at the 16:45 mark. Fenelon Falls' first goal of the game was the first of six for Phillips.

Fenelon Falls scored the first three goals of the second period with Phillips picking up two and Cutton one. Barry Danford picked up Stirling's only second period goal at the 18 minute mark of the period assisted by Brett Haggerty. Phillips scored at the 3:05 and 10:05 minute mark of the final frame to give Fenelon Falls a 6-2 lead. Stirling scored the next three goals at two minute intervals. Faulkner scored the first assisted by Barry Danford and Rodney McKeown. Barry Danford scored unassisted at the 12:20 mark while Rodney McKeown potted a goal at the 14:20 mark assisted by Barry Danford and Bill Faulkner. Phillips and Maudly repited for Fenelon Falls at the 14:30 and 14:35 marks of the final frame.

Referees assessed Fenelon Falls with 10 minor penalties and Stirling with four minors.

Barry Danford led the scoring for Stirling in their 6-4 loss Tuesday night in the second game of the series. Danford's goals were assisted by Rodney McKeown, Bill Faulkner, Darrell Bush, Roger Reid and Brett Haggerty. Rodney McKeown picked up Stirling's other tally assisted by Bill Faulkner.

Sudbury Pee Wee Realtors defeated Stirling Saturday night 6-4 in an exhibition game at the local arena. The visiting team had travelled to play weekend games against Stirling and Campbellford.

Rodney McKeown assisted by Barry Danford tied the score at the end of the first period after Sudbury had taken a 2-1 lead. Brett Haggerty assisted by Rodney McKeown and Darrell Bush scored Stirling's first goal. Sudbury picked up three goals in the second period while Stirling remained scoreless.

Brett Haggerty potted Stirling's first goal in the third period with Rodney McKeown and Barry Danford drawing the assists. Barry Danford scored Stirling's other third period tally assisted by Brett Haggerty. Sudbury potted the final goal of the game at the 19:10 mark of the period.

The local Pee Wee team will meet Trenton in an exhibition game this Thursday night.

Stirling Girl Wins District

Sandra LaChappelle, North Street, Stirling, was one of the winning public speaking competitors at the District Royal Canadian Legion competitions held at Peterborough Legion Branch Sunday afternoon.

Miss LaChappelle representing Centennial Secondary School, Belleville, will go on to Legion Area competitions next Sunday at Carleton Place. Winners of this competition are eligible for Provincial finals.

Midgets Lead Ont. Semi-Finals 2-0

Local Midgets showed signs of becoming Ontario Finalists Monday night after handing Shelburne a convincing 10-4 upset in the second game of the best of five Ontario Semi-finals. A win this Friday night on home ice would give Stirling the series three games straight. They took the first game from Shelburne Saturday afternoon 8-1.

Shelburne opened the scoring Monday night one minute and 12 seconds into the first period with a shot by Polle that caught Whatam on his stick side. Jerguson and Quinn assisted on the play. At 3:12 of the Period, Ken Jackett flipped the puck over a sprawled Shelburne goalie to give Stirling its first goal unassisted. Glen Detlor set up Stirling's go ahead goal in the final minutes of the first grame on a shot from inside the blue line to Cliff Reid who was standing in perfect position on Shelburne's doorstep.

Stirling went on a scoring rage in the second period, picking up six goals. John Ross scored from Wally Blakeley to give Stirling its first second period goal. Rob De Jong scored from Stan Myers at 9:05 of the period while Tom Reid scored his first of two goals in a row at the 13:50 mark of the period, Cliff Reid assisted on the play. Tom Reid scored again a minute later assisted by Ken Jackett and Wally Blakeley. Jeff Farrell set up Stirling's fifth goal of the period on a pass to Kevin Solmes who fired it from his right wing position to Stan Myers positioned on the corner of the crease. The same trio of Farrell, Myers and Solmes connected again a minute later with Solmes taking the pass this time from Myers to score for Stirling. Solmes' goal rounded out the second period scoring.

Quinn scored from Polle for Shelburne at the nine minute mark of the final frame. Cliff Reid scoring for Stirling pushed the puck past sprawled Shelburne goalie after receiving a pass from Stirling defenceman Glen Detlor. The lind of Quinn, Polle, and Jerguson scored for the visiting team as they attempted to come back from Stirling's convincing 9-4 lead. Rob De Jong scored Stirling's final goal as he beat the goalie to the glove side at the 15:18 mark of the final period. Tovey scored for Shelburne at the 16 minute mark of the period.

Stirling picked up four penalties while Shelburne drew three.

Stirling waited until the third period of Saturday's first game of the series to go on their scoring rampage. Stirling handed Shelburne an 8-1 trouncing.

Ken Jackett scored from Stan Myers in the first period to tie the game going into the second period.

Wally Blakeley and Stan Myers assisted by Ken Jackett gave Stirling a 3-1 second period lead.

Kevin Solmes scored three goals in the third period assisted by Myers, Jackett and Rob De Jong. Myers assisted by Glen Detlor and John Ross assisted by Blakeley and Jackett picked up Stirling's other markers.

The third and what could be final game of this series will be played in the local arena this Friday night at 8:30 p.m.

COMMUNITY HALL	Mark Tripp Limited	15.96

Clerk was instructed to order Calcium Chloride (the suggested amount the same as last year).

Council duly adjourned to meet again April 2, 1973.

Senior Citizens hold meeting

The Senior Citizens met on Thursday with 11 tables of euchre in play. The lucky winners were Mary Cook and Carmen Fitchett, with Margaret Fitchett and George McMullen also getting a prize. (nuf sed).

The lunch committee for the day did a good job. They were Fanny Kane, Dorothy Ross, Florence Dafoe and Alice Heasman.

We always seem to have some one in the hospital. This time it is Lyda McKee. We are happy to report that she is coming along nicely. We are pleased that Alimina Smith is back from the hospital and will be happy to see her back at our meeting again soon. (Keep your chin up Mina).

HOME CURE

After being examined for synovitis of the knee by our local Doctor, dis ole Scribe said, "Now Doc, now that you've examined me, how do I stand?" The Doctor replied, "In your condition, darned if I know -- It's a miracle." Now synovitis is a medical term for water on the knee. One simple cure is, to hand the baby back to it's mother.

Bantams Put Out By Newcastle 3-1

Stirling Bantams faced elimination from the Ontario Quarter Finals Saturday night following a 7-5 defeat at the hands of Newcastle in the fourth game of the best of five series.

Stirling won the first game 7-4 but had to put up with Newcastle wins in the second and third games.

Newcastle led the scoring off in the first period with a goal that was pushed in the right corner of the net past fallen Stirling goalie, John Bush.

Mark Dobson set up Stirling's first goal on a right wing pass to Cliff Reid who shot the puck, only to have the goalie deflect it out to the side of the crease where Dale Kleinsteuber fired it home. Kleinsteuber's goal at 17:32 rounded out the first period scoring. Newcastle scored the only second period marker.

Kleinsteuber scored for Stirling at the 1:08 mark of the third frame assisted by Jeff Farrell. Newcastle replied 14 seconds later to give them a one goal lead. Cliff Reid passed the puck to Mark Dobson to set up Stirling's tying goal. Dobson shot the puck which went off the glass at the back of the net. Kleinsteuber cleared the puck from the corner out to the front of the crease where Dobson pushed it past the sprawled goalie.

Newcastle took a 6-3 third period lead with a goal in the first half of the period and two in the final five minutes of play. Dobson scored for Stirling unassisted at the 16:33 mark while Dale Kleinsteuber potted a goal at the 18:55 mark. Newcastle topped off the scoring with a goal on the empty Stirling net. Newcastle were assessed three penalties, one for fighting while Stirling's only penalty came on a fighting call.

Newcastle took the third game from Stirling Thursday night with a 7-5 win. Mark Dobson picked two goals for Stirling while Doug Bastedo Brian Hadley and Cliff Reid potted the singles in a loosing attempt.

PUBLIC SCHOOL SPEAKERS

Lynn Joslin, left, Suzanne Jackett, Dianne LaChappelle and Joanne Campbell, all Senior Public School Public Speakers, look over each others speeches. Suzanne won first place in the Senior School Group Public Speaking competitions but was defeated at the county level while Lynn was second in the same senior school group competitions. Joanne was first and Dianne second in the Junior School Group Competitions.

Lagoon Plans Are Approved

Stirling has been authorized by the Ministry of the Environment to proceed with the next phase of enlarging the sewage treatment facilities currently being taxed to excess by the volume of flow.

At a public hearing conducted by the Ministry in Stirling February 13th, it was proposed to extend the present lagoon facility by constructing a second one south of the present location. The consultants Greer, Galway and Associates of Belleville, have recommended that the second lagoon be built about 1,200 feet south of the present one, instead of immediately adjacent, to improve the flow and also due to the fact that the land involved would be unsuitable.

The Ministry advised council Monday night that it has approved the plan suggested at the hearing, and the consultants now will proceed with further plans.

At the February hearing there was considerable opposition from residents of the area, which is located in Sidney township, but this apparently has not influenced the Ministry's decision.

This project has been in planning at various stages for nearly four years, being stalled because the council and government could not agree on a consulting firm. Just last year, approval was finally given for the Greer, Galway firm to handle the work.

Coupled with the extension of the lagoon system is the need for additional sewer lines to be constructed in the village. This cannot be done until more reception facilities are available. It is also holding up any proposed new construction of buildings, except in areas presently serviced by sewers.

HOUSE LEAGUE PLAYOFFS

In the first set of games in the Legion House League Semi-finals, Woodbeck Auto Parts edged R.D. Cooke Cartage 2-1 while Bird's IGA shut out DeJong Construction 3-0 in the Novice League.

In the Pee Wee House League, Riverside Construction downed Stirling Legion Novices 4-1 while Elaine Footwear defeated Stirling Rotary 3-1.

The second set of games in this two games -- goals to count series will be played this Saturday morning. Bird's IGA and DeJong Construction will tangle at 9 a.m. and Woodbeck Auto Parts and R. D. Cooke Cartage will play at 9:45 a.m. in the Novice League while Elaine Footwear and Stirling Rotary will play at 10:30 a.m. in the Pee Wee House League action.

CHSS to have Fashion Show

Centre Hastings Secondary School is organizing a Fashion Show for April 18, 1973.

Two trips have been made to Belleville to approach store managers, requesting their support. The response was encouraging. Stores in Marmora, Madoc, Tweed and Stirling have been or will be approached in hopes that they will also participate. Walker's, Reitman's (downtown), Jack Fraser (Quinte Mall), The Red Shark, Elk's (Quinte Mall), Pennington's, Fredelle Shoes, Maher Shoes (Quinte Mall), and Young Canada are definitely showing their spring and summer fashions.

The fashions are being modelled by the students and teachers. Altogether, there are 30 models. Mrs. Powell, a teacher at the high school, is teaching the girls how to walk and apply runway make-up.

There will be a wide range of fashions modelled for all ages and sizes, for young ladies, women, young men and gentlemen.

The show takes place for the general public in the gymatorium at 7:30 p.m. A runway is being put together by Mr. Sutton, a teacher, and the carpeting is being loaned to the school by Madoc Cash and Carry.

EXAMINING SCIENCE DISPLAYS

Kevin Pollock, right, points out part of the Computer Science Display that he had finished setting up in the Senior Public School Gym Friday. Examining the Computer is Katheline Blanchard, left, Mark Bissell, and Todd Sarles. Exhibits displayed in the school gym will be displayed at the annual Belleville Rotary Club's Science Fair and Hobby Show next month.

One enterprising businessman floated into Dawson City during the gold rush of 1898 with a cow and achieved his ambitions to be the first man to sell fresh milk in the Klondike. He charged $30. a gallon and immediately nicknamed "Cow" Miller.

JACK ELLIS WRITES :

My Friends:

This is my third letter to the Riding in a reasonably short time and will probably be followed by at least one or two more before summer. It is a busy time with a lot happening and I shall try to keep you fully informed.

First and quite important, is an explanation of the mix-up with regard to the Boundaries Commission Hearing on February 20th. The fact is simply that the Commission did adjourn prior to the time appointed for my submission. Since that time I have received an apology from them and have submitted my remarks in writing.

In the bit of free time I have had recently, I have tried to visit the Riding as much as possible. Since it is easier, Belleville receives a little more attention, but I visited the Tweed Winter Carnival on February 11th, the Madoc Winter Carnival on February 16th and 18th and the Bancroft Winter Carnival on February 25th. Unfortunately, while I enjoyed the festivities greatly, I did not have as much time with the people in the Riding as I might have liked. I am, therefore, going to set up formal times when I will be in the various centres in the Riding in the very near future.

The most important debate in the House of Commons, of course, recently was on the Budget. Frankly, I was very disappointed in this much-heralded document. In order to save time and space I will list some of my objections in the major areas:

.. The increase in Old Age Security to $100.00 doesn't even reflect the increased cost in living and will still leave some of our senior citizens well below the poverty level.

.. The decision to relieve farms from Capital Gains Tax when left from father to son, while excellent in itself, gives no help where the farm in incorporated or where the farm is to be left to another child (non-adopted, nephew, etc.) who may have worked and participated as a son would have. In addition, while milk quotas were mentioned there is nothing specific.

.. Small businesses which operate much as a family farm have been given no consideration such as mentioned above.

.. The removal of Tarrifs from many foods will not likely reduce the cost of food but will likely put many Canadian food processors out of work. I have already been told of farmers in Hastings losing approximately $15.00 per head for steers sold, just after the Budget.

.. The reduction in Income Tax comes only after all the increases of last year have been implemented, so that in actual fact, there will be approximately a 15% increase in the money received by the government through income tax under this Budget. While this will affect some more than others, it is certain that none will save much money.

These are some of my concerns. There are others, but I try to keep this newsletter an non-partisan as possible. If anyone disagrees with my comments on the Budget, I would be pleased to hear from you. I am always interested in hearing from citizens within the Riding of Hastings.

Yours sincerely,
J.R. Ellis, M.P.
Hastings Riding.

Loyalist Speaker Defines Problems

Twenty two were present for a Parent-Teacher meeting of the Stirling Co-operative Nursery School last week. The chairman, Ross Oldham, introduced the guest speaker, Rick Williams of Loyalist College. He gave an informative and illustrative presentation on "The Early Detection of Learning Disabilities in Children." He gave several types of disabilities:

1. Auditory Perception - the inability to discriminate between sounds.
2. Auditory Memory - the inability to remember sounds.
3. Visual Perception - the inability to discriminate between shapes.
4. Visual Memory -
5. Special Organization - the ability to organize the world in relation to one's own body.
6. Mathematical Organization - the inability to conceive of groups.

An interesting discussion and question period followed Mr. William's presentation. The social convenor, Mrs. Barbara Pitman, served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

The next Parent-Teacher meeting will be held on April 19 at St. Paul's United Church.

Rebekah lodge holds meeting

A very pleasant evening was held by Laurel Rebekah Lodge #211 in the I.O.O.F. Temple, Stirling, when the Noble Grand Sis. Marjorie Stapley welcomed a goodly number of members and visitors from Thomasburg and Madoc. The Vice Grand, Sis. Betty Johnson, reported several Sisters ill and they had been looked after in the regular way.

An invitation was received from Loch Loman Lodge at Campbellford to attend their Bazaar and Tea on April 18. A donation was made to the Rebekah Eye Bank and Research Foundation. It was decided to hold the annual Coffee and Dessert Party on Thursday, May 17. More about this later on.

Thomas Wildey Night is being held in the Temple, Stirling, on Thursday, March 29. A good program is being arranged so members, plan to be there and enjoy a good evening.

The Rebekah Degree was conferred on Sis. Kathleen Crowe in a very capable manner by the officers and staff of Laurel Lodge. A Sister from Thomasburg thanked the Lodge for such a pleasant evening and invited us to their Pancake Festival March 24, 25, 31 and April 1st in Moira Hall, Thomasburg. A Sister from Madoc also thanked the Lodge for such a nice evening.

Sister Pat Merrill PNG and Staff Captain thanked the officers and staff for an inspiring initiation -- the candidate Sis. Kathleen Crowe, also expressed her thanks.

The Noble Grand, Sis. Marjorie Stapley invited everyone to stay for a lunch provided by Sis. Bessie Patterson and her Committee. Thanks to the refreshment committee was extended by Brother Charles Carter PNG.

Art Show April 11–14

A most exciting event is in store for all who attend the Visual Arts Show of Artsfest '73. The Visual Arts committee chairman, Manfred Koechlin, announced this week that there will be over 500 items on display at Ben Bleecker Auditorium from April 11-14, from 12 noon to 10:00 p.m. covering a wide range of arts and crafts including painting, sculpture, pottery, weaving, batik and macrame. The work will all be that of local artists from the counties of Hastings, Prince Edward, Northumberland and Lennox and Addington.

Guest artists for this year's show will be Tony Lassing, an artist and sculptor from Trenton, who is preparing large dynamic sculptures particularly for Visual Arts '73.

The Elementary and Secondary schools in both Hastings and Prince Edward counties will also be represented with a comprehensive display of student art, co-ordinated by Fred Riemersma.

The display design has been undertaken by a committee of Kathy Brady, Paul Bernard and Linda Mustard. The overall plan has been designed to create more display area and a delightful visual experience.

The juror for art is Trevor Hodgson, a professional artist and Professor of Art at Queen's University.

In addition to public display, the show will be open to supervised groups of students free of charge during the mornings of the 11th, 12th and 13th by appointment with the Quinte Arts Council office.

Any artists and craftsmen who have not been as yet contacted, and who have work to display are asked to call the Quinte Arts Council office for information at 962-1232, or write to Q.A.C., 254 1/2 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

St. James CWL Meets

A combined C.W.L. and parish council meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Doran on March 8. Six members and four of the men present assisted Father McGarvey in the celebration of mass.

Following the recitation of the League prayer and with Mrs. Stan Meeks presiding, Mrs. John Kerby read the roll call and minutes of the previous meeting. The treasurer, Mrs. J. Doran gave her report, and it was noted that a profitable sum was made from catering to the recent livestock sale. Business letters were read, and a sympathy card sent to one of our members. Final plans were made for the St. Patrick's card party.

The president requested a report from the treasurer and secretary for the annual meeting in April. At the parish council meeting the forthcoming "Key 73", program was discussed. This program does not identify with any one particular church, but urges all faiths to be active in their own church, and to read the pamphlet forthcoming.

The meeting adjourned with Father's blessing, followed by lunch served by the hostess, Mrs. Doran, assisted by Mrs. R. LaChappelle.

Merrie Bowlers

Barb Noble is doing some fantastic bowling these days. She's pushed her average ahead of her close-goers, Helena Oosting and Betty Hubble, to 181. This week she had high single of 250, plus a 229 and high triple of 615. She can't quite catch Ruth Glover's high single and triple of 289 and 699. That's going to be difficult to match.

Other over 200 games were rolled by Flo Parsonson 219; Jean Cooke 207; Helena Oosting 217; Mildred Fraser 215; Lillian Arbuckle 243; Ruth Glover 213; Ruby Tompkins 207.

Seems like Mildred Fraser must have put the fear of the river in those Dingalings, 'cause they came up with 5 points this week, raising their total to 60. Bessie Hewton's Dingbats took those other 2 points, raising their total to 100, even insinuated that was all they wanted, to make that nice round figure. Maybe they think when you get 100 you've got it made. We'll see.

Would you believe that Isobel Hutcheon's Belles rang out a loud and clear 7 points from Lorna Wrightman's Meatheads? The moral of that story is "It takes two to tangle," and believe me, it's gonna be. They're both standing on a 95 total. With names like those teams have, it'll be like the battle of the beauty and the beast. The Dingalings and Dingbats may both stay in the belfry next week. Bats? No!! Chickens.

Friday Night Mixed League

On Mar. 16, Robert's Jokers were 5.2 winners over Pete's Deuces, Robert's Jokers are in first place with 112 points and Ralph's Aces are second with 107, Don's Diamonds are third with 90 and Pete's Deuces fourth with 72.

In "A" group for the ladies Verna Woodbeck rolled a 287 for high single and 736 for high triple. Verna also has high average of 195.

In "B" group for the ladies Irene Lippert rolled a 208 for high single and 522 for high triple. Irene also has high average of 156.

It was heard to have been said by Robert Sararas "I haven't had a good night in a long time." Well, he can't say that anymore. He rolled a game of 348 for high single for the night and a 713 for high triple. I would say that's a pretty good night. Ralph Park is keeping right in there with his high average of 212.

Other good games bowled that night of 200 and over were Ralph Scea 232; Verna Woodbeck 208, 241; Ralph Riseley 208, 219; Grace Scea 200; Ralph Park 267, 232; Ted Mead 268; Don Carr 263, 241 and Bud Riseley 225, 223 and 241.

During the Klondike gold rush, wood for whip-sawed lumber became so scarce that ordinary logs sold for $80. apiece.

Morrow-Sulkevicius

St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling, was the setting for the recent wedding of Peggy Lia Sulkevicius to Stanley Glenn Morrow. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sulkevicius, Batawa, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn F. Morrow, R.R. 4, Stirling.

Rev. Charles Staples, rector of the church, officiated at the ceremony with Mrs. Gail Faulkner providing organ accompaniment for the Morrow sisters' quartet and the other wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride came down the aisle wearing a floor length Poise-de-suave dress, with a chapple length veil and double-band headdress. She carried three red roses on a white Bible.

The maid of honor was Miss Elaine Williams of Stirling. She wore a baby blue, polyester gabardine, floor length dress, trimmed with blue velvet ribbon. She carried a basket of colored mums, with the white handle trimmed with matching blue ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ines Sulkevicius, sister of the bride; Miss Susan Thompson, a cousin; and Miss Laura St. Pierre, who all wore identical gowns to that of the maid of honor, and carried similar floral designs.

Cindy Hadley, niece of the groom, was the flower girl, and similarly attired.

The groom was attended by his brother James Morrow, while the ushers were Michael Tsichlas, Manuel Tsichlas and Jack De Bruyn.

The reception was held at the Frankford Royal Canadian Legion Hall, where the bride's mother received the guests. She wore a blue, floor length polyester knit dress, with corsage of white and yellow mums. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a light blue crepe dress with lace top. It was also floor length and the corsage was identical to the bride's mother's.

After a short wedding trip the couple took up residence in Batawa.

Prior to the wedding, a community shower was held at the Batawa Community Hall, and her maid of honor also gave a shower at her home in Stirling.

It's About Time

There is no single problem facing society at the moment that compares with the illicit use of drugs, and the associated involvement of those who grow it, refine it, distribute it and sell it to the suspecting and unsuspecting alike. Newpaper accounts and numerous television programs, both news and documentary, bring to us vividly just how serious this matter is.

Th. major problems in trying to stamp out this curse on humanity, where a favored few make millions from the misery of many are -- trying to overcome the graft involved along the distribution line to insure freedom from intervention by authorities, and education of the general public of how serious taking of drugs can be.

With these two facts in mind, it was refreshing to hear President Richard Nixon advocate much stiffer fines for various aspects of the drug scene. Just how soon these may become law in the USA is unsure, but it is likely that some action will be taken before too long.

Since drugs have become such a blight on society, two of the factors facing the law enforcement agencies are that (a) victims were unwilling to testify against pushers or suppliers, and (b) those that were sentenced were given relatively short terms, and even then were sooner eligible for parole. This in effect meant that the hard work of obtaining a conviction was quickly wiped out as the criminals were back in circulation and back at their evil habit.

It is true that the rewards of the drug industry, in the illegal trafic, are great, and thus those involved do not hesitate to take great risks. By the same token, a few years imprisonment do not really deter them, as they know they can soon get out and usually have associates who will carry on while they ar in prison as well. If the proposed stiff sentences and lack of parole privileges are approved, this would certainly make some think twice. It would also possible encourage those who are victims, and have the desire to try and stem the flow by giving evidence to come forward and present their case.

Without trying to expound on the case against drug use, at this time, it is sufficient to say that it has become perhaps the most serious problem to deal with. If by providing strong deterrents for anyone becoming involved, the volume can be measurably decreased then it would be a worthwhile start. We also need to continue extensive and comprehensive educational campaigns to stop people from using them, but if the availability is curtailed, then this will also help.

The March meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M Megginson, with a good attendance. This meeting was grandmother's day. With Mrs. Louis Rodgers presiding, the meeting opened with the Institute Ode and the Lord's Prayer in unison, followed by community singing of old favorites of the grandmothers. Mrs. H. Rodgers led the singing and Mrs. Woodbeck presided at the piano.

Hon Mr. Fisher has announced that the eastern slope of the Rockies, from the boundary line to its northerly limit is to be made a forest reserve for the benefit of future generations in the west. It is to be hoped that this is but the beginning of a comprehensive forestry policy for the whole Dominion, to include not only the setting apart of original forest stretches, but the reforestation of those sections that have been robbed of their virginal growth. The preservation of the forest wealth of the country is a debt we owe to posterity. Surely it is no more than just that we should leave the land as fruitful as we found it.

54th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Twiddy, Ivanhoe, Ont., observed their 54th wedding anniversary on Monday, March 12. The occasion was marked by a family dinner given in their honor by their children. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Twiddy, Ivanhoe; Mr. and Mrs. Gaynor Rendell, Deseronto; and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Creaser, Nanticoke.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Twiddy are in fair health and living quietly at their farm home. They enjoy visits with old friends who find time to drop in. Their many friends and relatives extend best wishes to them on this happy occasion.

Keeping it clean

with Bill Dodds

Who Cares?

Two out of three Canadians are concerned about pollution and litter, according to a recent consumer survey conducted by the Travel Industry Association of Canada.

This is, of course, an industry with a vital interest in a clean, attractive and healthy environment. If pollution and litter detract from Canada's reputation as a nice place to visit, it discourages tourists, conventions and other visitors from coming back. And this takes income, not just from one industry, but indirectly from all of us.

But this interest in a clean environment is not uniform across the country. Attitudes in Quebec showed only 55 percent of the population are concerned. In the prairie provinces, the percentage was only 57. In Ontario and the rest of the nation, 76 percent of us care.

The survey also showed that interest in the environment increases with education--80 percent of the university-schooled were concerned.

But almost half of the people under 20 showed a surprising disinterest. That bothers me. We've come along way in improving our environment in Ontario. We can't sit back and let apathy grow in our young people--the people who will eventually inherit our responsibilities.

It's a problem in education. We have to get the message through to the children--and the remaining adults--who aren't interested.

Of course government must take an active role in public education. Environment Ontario has an extensive education program under way-- a program that will continue and grow.

And more and more teachers in our schools are becoming concerned about environmental issues and are working to pass this concern on to their students.

But it would help a great deal if those of us who are parents took the time to see for ourselves that our own children care.

Mount Pleasant

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tamlin, Cambray, Ontario, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoard and family.

The painters have been busy renovating the Central Cheese Factory for the spring operations.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Knight and children were guests at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young, Oshawa, on Friday evening.

On Sunday, March 18th at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Percy MacMullen attended the baptismal service for her great grandson, Jason James Christopher at Christ Anglican Church, Belleville. Mrs. Sid Demorest of Marmora also attended the service for her great nephew. The baby is the three month old son of Reg and Patsy Christopher of Belleville. The Godparents were John and Susan MacMullen. Canon R.B. Deblois Wright officiated. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ormel MacMullen, Belleville, entertained 12 guests to a christening luncheon following the ceremony.

The Mount Pleasant Night Prowlers held their third meeting March 1st at Stirling School. We had two visitors - Lois Hoard and Barbara Sager. The leaders helped with our covers. Brenda discussed four types of darts and their uses. We all sewed on our garments.

Our fourth meeting was held Thursday, March 8th. We opened with the pledge.

Our leaders conducted a quiz to help acquaint us with achievement day.

Brenda showed us the proper way to do gathers and bindings. We all sewed on our garments.

Call Alarm Tender At OSD

The Hon. James W. Snow, Minister of Government Services, said that tenders are now being called for the supply and installation of a modern fire alarm system at the Ontario School for the Deaf, Belleville, for the Ministry of Education, at an estimated cost of $48,000.

The current tendering covers the first section of a multi-stage program to provide the school with a completely revised fire alarm system, specifically designed by Ministry of Government Services staff for the alerting and evacuation of deaf children.

The system will provide maximum protection for students, staff and buildings, and will reduce distrubance and inconvenience to a minimum in the event of evacuation.

Stage 1, covering the junior school and dormitories and the staff residence, is expected to be complete within three months of a contract award.

Guide News

On Tuesday, March 13th, 30 of the 32 guides were present.

Mrs. Pitman taught us a new game called 'thread-the-needle.' It was fun but there were a few disjointed fingers when we were finished.

Mrs. Bruce Murray gave several girls instructions on their Pet Keeper's badge.

Following this we were tested on the Fire Brigade Badge. Chief Mouck marked several successful papers.

We closed the meeting with an enjoyable campfire.

Girls Lead Semi-Finals

Stirling Senior Girls took the first game in the Semi-Finals Monday night shutting out Belleville 6-0.

Joan Bailey led the scoring with three goals while Sue Wright picked up two. Shelly Farrell added the single tally.

The second game in this two game, goals to count series will be played in Belleville Sunday afternoon at 5:15 p.m.

River Valley card party

River Valley Women's Institute sponsored their 11th card party at the Centre on Friday evening March 16th, with ten tables in play. A few visitors were in attendance. The Agriculture and Canadian Industries' group provided the refreshments and were in charge of the arrangements. Prizes, ladies first - Mrs. J.L. Donohoe; second - Mrs. Dorothy Ross. Men - Frank Westfall; second - John Kane.

The last card party will be held Friday evening.

Good Tidings WMC Minto

On Thursday evening, Mar. 15th, ladies of the W.M.C. of Good Tidings met at the home of Mrs. Ray Donnan for their March meeting. Pres. Miss Marjorie Forbes opened the meeting thanking the ladies for attending and Mrs. Donnan for opening her home for the occasion, and asking everyone to open their Bibles to Philiplans and reading together chapter 14, verses 1 - 16.

Mrs. Melville Grills gave an opening prayer.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by secretary Mrs. Ray Donnan. Miss Forbes read the bulletin from Miss Janet Roger and a time of business discussion followed.

Mrs. Melville Donnan brought the devotional of the evening speaking on women approved of God. Their place in the world, society, church and in the home as mothers. Mrs. Lee Smith led in singing of choruses.

Prayer requests were taken and a time of prayer followed with Mrs. Clifford Elliott, and Mrs. Lee Smith, Dennis Donnan, home from Lennoxville, Que., came in to thank the ladies for their prayers.

Miss Forbes closed the meeting with prayer.

(By Mrs. Lindsay Tanner)

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, Rhonda and Russell of Thomasburg and Mr. and Mrs. Ern Broadworth of Stirling, were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Sarles on Tuesday.

Mrs. Annie Sheridan of Port Hope spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Forestell.

Mr. Frank Graham of Coe Hill and Mr. and Mrs. John Wickens of Belleville called on Mr. and Mrs. Ed Colden Sunday afternoon.

Mount Pleasant

On Wednesday evening, March 14th, Mount Pleasant U.C.W. convened at the church hall with 35 ladies in attendance. This included one visitor, Mrs. Charles Tamlin of Cambray, Ontario.

Mrs. Garth Joslin provided the musical interlude and Mrs. Robert Hoard gave a short message.

The roll call was on the theme "Alert in our Times". The various reports were given and included the financial picture by the treasurer, Mrs. Burton Sharpe.

Mrs. Elden Chapman read the various thank-you notes.

A personal message of thanks was given by Mrs. Kenneth Weaver.

Mrs. Claire Knight voiced thanks on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacMullen. Percy had received over 100 cards to date during his illness in hospital for the part three weeks, also the lovely floral arrangement given by U.C.W. members.

Mrs. Robert Merrick gave a report for the catering done in January and February.

If anyone is interested in a bus trip to the United Nations June 4th to 8th, they can get further particulars from Mrs. Clayton Thompson, Campbellford, R.R.5.

A letter from Hastings Manor requested two invitations in March and November.

The group will serve lunch at the McAdam auction sale.

A bazaar will be held on Thursday, October 11th and several suggestions were given.

Mrs. Herbert Smith asked that the group learn more about India.

Plans were made to visit the Towers Nursing Home.

A donation will be made to Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise.

The bale will be packed in May.

Mrs. Frank Andrews thanked all those who contributed for the canvass for the "Silent Supper."

The program was in charge of Mrs. Stanley Williams and Mrs. Ross Jeffs and centred around the theme of "World's Day of Prayer" which is a highlight of interest. Selections and poems were read by the convenors. Bonnie Williams accompanied the assembly singing with her chord organ. Mrs. Robert Merrick and Mrs. Harry McAdam gathered the offering which Mrs. Marguerite McMullen dedicated.

At the close of the devotional Mrs. Garth Joslin read a poem entitled "Spring" and Mrs. Herbert Smith gave a quizz on India.

The refreshment committee Mrs. Milford Wrightman and and Mrs. Garth Joslin were in charge of the social hour.

IN MEMORIAM

BATEMAN
In loving memory of a dear grandmother, Emma Bateman, who passed away March 21st, 1972.
In tears we saw you sinking,
We watched you fade away,
Our hearts' were almost broken,
You fought so hard to stay.
When we saw you sleeping
So peacefully free from pain,
We could not wish you back Grandma,
To suffer that again.
To us she has not gone away,
Nor has she travelled far,
Just entered God's eternal home.
And left the gate ajar.
-- Lovingly remembered by Murney, Elda, Wes, Lenora,

Burning Rectal Itch Relieved In Minutes
Exclusive Healing Substance Relieves Pain As It Shrinks Hemorrhoids.
If you want satisfactory relief from "Itching Piles"—here's good news. A renowned research laboratory has found a unique healing substance that promptly relieves the burning itch and pain—actually shrinks hemorrhoids. This substance has been shown to produce a most effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.
In case after case "very striking improvement" was noted, even among cases of long standing. And this improvement was maintained over a period of months!
This was accomplished by a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulate growth of new tissue. Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation "H". Ask for it at all drug stores—satisfaction or money refunded.

TOWNSHIP OF RAWDON
ROAD CLOSING BYLAW

BY-LAW No. 988
of the
TOWNSHIP OF RAWDON

A BY-LAW FOR CLOSING ROAD ALLOWANCE PARTS OF LOTS 19, 20 and 21, of the 14th Concession of the Township of Rawdon, approximately 2,637.69 feet.

Whereas, by virture of Section 444 (1) (c) and (d), Chapter 284 of the Municipal Act, R.S.O. 1970, the Council of every municipality may pass a By-Law for stopping up a Highway and for the sale of the soil and freehold of the part of the Highway so stopped up.

AND WHEREAS, the Council of the Corporation of the Township of Rawdon deemed it expedient to stop up and sell part of lots 19, 20 and 21 of the 14th concession of the Township of Rawdon, approximately 2,637.69 feet.

AND WHEREAS, statutory requirements for giving notice of the proposed By-Law and for the hearing of persons who claim to be prejudicially affected have been complied with;

AND WHEREAS, no valid objections have been made to this by-law;

NOW THEREFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RAWDON ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. All and singular that certain parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the Township of Rawdon, in the County of Hastings and being composed of parts of lots 19, 20 and 21 of the 14th concession of the Township of Rawdon, approximately 2,637.69 feet.

2. That the said part of the allowance for road be stopped up and the same is hereby vested in the Corporation of the Township of Rawdon and the said Corporation is hereby authorized to sell the said allowance for road so stopped up to adjoining owners at such price as may be determined by the said Corporation, and in default of the said adjoining owners purchasing the same, to such other persons as it may see fit, for such price as may be determined by the said Corporation of $1.00.

3. This By-Law shall come into force and take effect immediately upon the Corporation of the County of Hastings passing a Confirming By-Law according to Section 444, (6) (c) Chapter 284, of the Municipal Act R.S.O. 1970.

Read a first and second time this fifth day of March, 1973.
W. J. Barlow, Clerk.
R.E. Shortt, Reeve.
I, R.E. Shortt, Reeve of the Township of Rawdon, do hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of By-Law No. 988, of the Township of Rawdon.

RECEIVING AWARD

Rev. Dr. A. Marsh Laverty -- better known to thousands of Queen's University graduates as "the Padre" -- is seen receiving the 1973 Lamp o Learning Award, March 20, in Toronto from Douglas Dinsmore, right, president-elect of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation. The award is presented annually to a non-teacher who has made a major contribution to secondary education in Ontario.

Dr. A.M. Laverty Is Honored By Teachers

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation last week bestowed on a United Church Minister and Kingston school trustee the highest honor it can pay a non-teacher -- the Lamp of Learning.

Rev. Dr. A. Marsh Laverty, Queen's University chaplain, received the Award at the Annual Dinner of the O.S.S.T.F. annual assembly in Toronto. He is a former minister at St. Paul's Church, Stirling.

O.S.S.T.F. President, Daryl Hodgins, noted that Dr. Laverty is better known to thousands of Queen's University graduates as "The Padre." First appointed to the position in January, 1947, Dr. Laverty was the first chaplain by Queen's or any other Canadian university.

The Lamp of Learning Award, presented annually since 1950, recognizes contributions to secondary education by an individual who is not a teacher.

Dr. Laverty became actively involved with education in 1951 - the first year in which he was elected to the Kingston Board of Education. As a board member he is completing 23 years continuous service first with the Kingston Board and since 1967 with the Frontenac County Board of Education. Reviewing the years Dr. Laverty said he became involved because he, "had some feeling of confidence and an inclination to help students."

His record bears this out:

Except for the Board's Advisory Vocational Committee on which he has served for a number of years, Dr. Laverty has been chairman of all board committees several times. He was also chairman of the old city board, and, in 1972 was chairman of the Frontenac County Board of Education.

- Long before there were secondary school liaison officers at universities, Dr. Laverty was accepting invitations to secondary schools around the province to discuss university preparations with students. These visits total more than 600.

As a member of the Association of College and University Chaplains he has spoken to university groups across Canada and to schools including Cornell, Stanford, West Point, and Yale in the United States. His most recent activity in this field was as keynote speaker at the annual meeting of the Service for Admission to College and University for Canada held in Saskatoon in February 1973.

Over the last three years, Dr. Laverty has worked with a number of Queen's student volunteers to pioneer a canoe-tripping experience for underprivileged young people. Through speaking engagements, he has raised $24,000 to cover the operating expenses of this project which has involved more than 400 young people and 75 volunteers.

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation which represents approximately 35,000 secondary school teachers across the province, is the largest of five teacher federations in Ontario.

Builders Busy In Stirling

During the past year, numerous new buildings and renovations to existing ones have been done in Stirling. The building permits for last year were slightly over $900,000, which included the new school construction on St. James St. This was the largest single effort, and is still in progress.

Other businesses that have done work are as follows:

TOWN OFFICE - installing the licence bureau in the former storage room plus decoration of the council chamber and clerk's office.

COMMUNITY HALL - installation of new washroom facilities, plus a continuing program of redecoration.

STIRLING NEWS-ARGUS renovation of former Simpson Sears premises at 19 Front Street West, and relocation of newspaper printing facilities.

PEARL ROSE STUDIO renovation of corner building of the McCaughen Block, and installation of pottery making equipment and display facilities.

STIRLING COMMERCIAL PRINTING - renovation of the former front office and newspaper production room to accommodate the recently introduced line of stationery supplies.

STIRLING CREAMERY new front on both buildings.

CARRYING INDUSTRIES (Tack Shop) - reorganization of facilities to convert from retail to manufacturing operations.

JOHN'S DAIRY STORE installation of facilities to handle new chicken and other food lines.

JOHN'S RESTAURANT renovations to install facilities for pizza making.

KLOMPMAKER BROS. GROCERIES - interior store renovations.

STIRLING LUMBER - levelling and fencing lumber storage yard, building truss construction facilities, renovation of former office space to instal display facilities.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FOOD - enlargement of former premises to double office space capacity.

BIRD'S IGA - renovation and redecorating of interior store facilities.

PATTERSON'S MEN'S WEAR - renovations and relocation of display racks.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH - erection of new entrance and interior stairway, plus demolition of old outside stairs and closing in old entrance.

STIRLING MOTORS - paving of parking lot.

DR. P.D.G. BRIGGS - alterations to entrance and enlargement of office space.

In addition to this work, which is hopefully a complete list, although there may have been some ommissions, there has been some new home construction as well as numerous renovation work in existing buildings.

Coming up this year, the major effort known at the moment will be the construction of new service facilities at Wells Ford Mercury Sales, when the operations will be moved from the present location across the road to amalgamate with the existing show room and body shop buildings.

Stirling Wins Brighton Event

Stirling won the 'B' championship trophy at the Brighton Novice Tournament Saturday after defeating Fort Henry Heights 3-1. Ron Sills scored from Brian Doxtator while Bruce Wood picked up a single from Brian Doxtator and Brian Wood. Brian Doxtator picked up the other marker assisted by Ron Sills and Bruce Wood.

In the first game of the tourney, Stirling was shutout by Frankford 2-0 while in the second game the local team defeated Trenton 2-0. Brian Doxtator scored from Brian Wood while Bruce Wood assisted by Ron Sills and Brian Doxtator picked up the other winning goal.

Stirling played their second game of the group finals in Frankford Tuesday night. If a third game is necessary, it will be played in Stirling this Friday night at 8 p.m. Frankford led the series going into Tuesday night's game with a 2-0 win in the first game.

A SKIP.. AND IT'S SPRING

Next to spying a robin, four girls skipping on a snowless front lawn with their coats off is a very good sign that spring has sprung. Kathy Finkle, Kelee Chyphya Joyce Scholten and Anita Dixon decided last Thursday afternoon that the day was both warm and bright enough to try their first skip.

Novices, Peewees Start Finals

Stirling Legion House League Novices and Pee Wees begin their finals this Thursday and Friday night in a best two of three game series.

Woodbeck Auto Parts will meet Bird's IGA at 6 p.m. in the Novice final while Riverside Construction and Elaine Footwear will tangle at 7 p.m. in the Pee Wee division. The second set of games will be played Friday night at the same times.

Bird's IGA shut out DeJong Construction 1-0 in last Saturday morning's Novice semi-finals while Woodbeck Auto Parts downed R.D. Cooke Cartage 8-3. These wins gave Woodbeck Auto Parts an overall score of 10-4 and Bird's IGA a score of 4-0.

Stirling Rotary edged Elaine Footwear 4-3 last Saturday morning in Pee Wee semi-finals while Legion Novices edged Riverside Construction 2-1. Although Riverside and Elaine lost their second set of games last Saturday, good wins in the first set of semi-finals gave them the right to advance into the finals. Riverside Construction had an overall score of 5-3 while Elaine Footwear edged Rotary 6-5 overall.

Tanner LOL Card Party

A card party sponsored by Tanner LOL was held Friday night with eleven tables in play.

The winners were:- Ladies high, Mrs. Vernon Runnalls; Ladies 2nd, Mrs. Ed Colden; Ladies low, Mrs. Fred Martin; Men's high, Murney Fleming; Men's 2nd, Keith Clancy; Men's low, Fred Martin. Door prize, Mrs. Doug Clancy.

Following cards lunch was served and the final card party of the season announded in two weeks.

CARL RAY

Funeral service for Carl Aubrey Ray, R.R. 1, Spring Brook, who died suddenly at his home Friday, March 9, was held at the Howden Funeral Home, Marmora Monday, March 19. He was in his 47th year.

Mr. Ray had just returned home from hospital on Thursday after suffering a heart attack on Feb. 9th.

Rev. W.C. Cox of Spring Brook United Church officiated and bearers were Bob Barrons, Don Bateman, Wayne Wellman, Ira Edwards, Doug Smith and Reg Kennedy.

Son of Mrs. Mabel Ray and the late Percy Ray, he was born and educated in Rawdon Township and was employed by the Marmoraton Mining Co. for the past 19 years as a millwright.

He was a member of Spring Brook United Church and Royal Canadian Legion Branch 237 of Marmora.

He is survived by his wife, the former Lee Anne Marie Cassidy; one son, Lloyd Grant of Belleville; and three daughters, Mrs. James (Gail) Tanner of Oshawa, Miss Rhonda Marlene of Belleville and Miss Lorrie Angela at home. There are two grandchildren.

Five brothers, Robert of Campbellford, Ross of Spring Brook, Glen of Stirling, Lorne of Belleville and Arnold of Stirling; and five sisters, Mrs. William (Margaret Rose) Morton of Oakville, Mrs. Norma Deury of Frankford, Mrs. Irene Crossen of Belleville, Mrs. Jean Van Horne of Spring Brook and Miss Gwen Ray of Stirling, also survive.

Hold Timmy Night April 3rd

Stirling residents get their chance to help kick off the 1973 Easter Seal Campaign Tuesday night when the second annual Timmy Night will be held at the Stirling Community Hall.

Sponsored by the Stirling Rotary Club, the event will feature music by the highly talented Centennial Secondary School Band, under the direction of Monty Emmerson. This band includes several Stirling players among its membership.

Also on hand will be the Stirling "Timmy," Randy Sararas, who represents the crippled children assisted by the Rotarians throughout the year. The function gets underway at 8 p.m.

Midgets Reach Ontario Finals

A five goal scoring spree by John Ross help earn the local Midgets a convincing 9-1 win over Shelburne in the third game of the best of five Ontario Semi-finals. Stirling now advances to the Ontario Finals to meet either Glencoe or Six Nations.

Shelburne held Stirling to one goal in the first period Friday night but as Stirling accelerated their skating and passing patterns in the second and third periods, Shelburne failed to keep up with them. Stirling had been successful in the first two games, outskating Shelburne to 8-1 and 10-4 wins.

Wally Blakeley's backhander, deflected under the Shelburne goalie by John Ross, gave Stirling a one goal lead going into the second period. Dave Jeffs also assisted on the play.

Ken Jackett led the scoring off in the second period with a goal assisted by Rob De Jong and Kevin Solmes. John Ross picked the goalie's glove side as he shot from left wing unassisted to draw his second goal of the night. Kevin Solmes took the puck from the face off and passed it to Stan Myers situated on the side of the crease, who slapped it past the goalie. Kevin Solmes won the face off to the left of the goalie with a minute to go in the period, and passed the puck back to defenceman Dave Jeffs on the blue line who fired the puck past Shelburne goalie.

Shelburne picked up its only goal of the game at the four minute mark of the third period. Shelburne shoved the puck from behind the Stirling net out to a forward situated at the corner of the crease who shot the puck over Terry Bush's right side.

John Ross picked up his third goal as he stole the puck from a Shelburne player in the corner and rounded the side of the net to place the puck in the lower right corner behind the sprawled Shelburne goalie.

A minute later, Rob De Jong carried the puck over the blue line and shot it at the goalie who deflected it to his feet where John Ross raised it over the goalie's head catching the top of the net. Tom Reid and Cliff Reid set up the final Ross goal at the 17:03 mark of the final frame. Rob De Jong completed Stirling's scoring at 19:45 of the period assisted by Wally Blakeley and Kevin Solmes.

There were 19 penalties with Shelburne picking up 10 including a 5 minute fighting call.

Newlyweds are honored

A community shower was held at River Valley Community Centre in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Morrow (nee Peggy Sulkevicius) on their recent marriage.

Hadley Richardson acted as chairman. Slides were shown by Isobel and Ed Heasman on their recent trip to Florida.

Community-singing, accompanied by Gladys Conley, piano, and Joan Bush, leading, was enjoyed.

Numerous readings were given by Mrs. Bessie Bush, Mrs. Alta Carr, Miss Sheila Richardson and Mrs. Joan Bush. Musical selections were given by Gladys Conley and Norman Rosebush and Caroline Woods gave a piano solo.

Stanley and Peggy were then given seats of honor at the front of the room. Jean Donohoe, on behalf of the shivaree gang, read an address and Jack Donohoe presented them with a tri-light lamp.

Marion Richardson, on behalf of the community, read an address and Philip Conley, Ernest Carr and George Heasman presented Stan and Peggy with a bridge table and four chairs, and magazine rack.

Stanley voiced his thanks on behalf of Peggy and himself, and invited everyone to visit them at Batawa.

For they are jolly good fellows was sung. Lunch was served to bring the evening to a close.

Cancer Society Opens Campaign

The annual campaign of the Canadian Cancer Society gets its local kickoff next week with special bulletins provided for local churches to use on Sunday and a general meeting for public education next Wednesday.

April has for some years been Cancer Campaign month and April 1 is designated as Daffodil Sunday. To help publicize this worthwhile effort the society is providing each local church with special bulletins, on which the regular church service is then printed inside.

To acquaint the public with the general campaign information and also provide an open forum for information on the illness, a public meeting will be held Wednesday, April 4, at the Junior Public School at 8 p.m. The program will feature films, discussion period with a doctor and nurse on hand to answer medical aspects of the situation.

Refreshments will be served by St. John's Anglican Church Women.

Stirling Bowlers Win Doubles Tournament Here

On Sunday, March 25th the Zone Round of the High-Low Doubles tournament was held at Stirling Bowl-O-Drome. It was sponsored by professional Bowling Services Limited (who sell the type of automatic pin setters at the local lanes) under the auspices of the Ontario Bowlers' Congress and conducted by the Bay of Quinte Bowlers' Association. Twenty eight teams of two bowlers bowled in three shifts to determine the pair who would advance to the Ontario Finals at Preston on May 12 and the prizes for the top nine doubles. Dan Beith and Paul Trulasch of Stirling Bowl - O - Drome took first place by beating their combined averages as of Dec. 24, 1972, by 205. They also each won a chest of stainless steel flatware.

Other winners in order of finish were 2nd - Joe Jones and Harry Bank of Hastings, 162 over, won electric bun warmers; 3rd - Ivy Poste and Keith Lake of Stirling Bowl - O-Drome, 145 over, electric coffee percolators; 4th - M. Guernsey and L. Boshier, Canadian Forces Base, Trenton, 121 over, electric bean pots; 5th - K. McMillan and B. Bryer, Hastings, electric carving knives; 6th - L. Grills and K. Bertin, Campbellford, bathroom scales; 7th - R. Phillips and C. Shearer, Campbellford, oil and vinegar bottles; 8th - R. Moon and E. Neal, Spring Brook, cocktail glasses; 9th - K. Stevenson and E. Radford, Hastings, bon bon dishes.

The House Round of this tournament was held over eight consecutive weeks in league bowling, beginning Jan. 8. Partners were determined in each league by pairing the highest average bowler with the lowest average bowler, and so on until all the bowlers were paired. At the end of the eighth week, if more than one team remained, the team beating their average the most pins in the eighth week were the winners. All Zone Winning Doubles who advance to the Ontario Finals will be competing for over $1,000, in merchandise prizes and will attend the banquet sponsored by the Ontario Bowlers Congress.

PRIZES PRESENTED

Al Nichols, Bay of Quinte Executive, presents prizes to Paul Trulasch and Dan Beith of Stirling Bowl-O-Drome following the tournament at Stirling on Sunday.

Senior Citizens hold meeting

We welcomed Mrs. Good from Mountain Grove and Tilly Jeffries from the River Road to Senior Citizens last Thursday. We are happy to report that Almina Smith has made a double comeback (back from Hosp. and back to Senior Citizens.)

Eleven tables of euchre were in play. The prizes were won by what is known as the doodit quartette, they do it so often; 1st Lenora Williams and John Kane and last were Margaret Fitchett and Ross Hoard.

The lunch committee composed of Martha Fitchett, Tilly Jeffries, Jessie Johnson and Bessie Patterson, really swamped us with tasty assorted sandwiches. We could have fed a multitude. Thanks girls, and our thanks to Harry Jeffries for donating the prizes.

TELL TALES

While on the beach recently in Florida, Ern Munro adopted the following slogan: "The better she looks -- the longer I do."

News-Argus Seeks New Camera Man

The expression "all good things must come to an end" applies as much to the newspaper trade as anything else, and now it has ... or at least it will in another few months or weeks. We refer to the career of Thom Reynolds, camera man, dark room technician, and sportswriter of the Stirling News-Argus for the past several years.

Now working for his third publisher, Thom has helped fill many columns of the paper with sports news as well as taking and printing the pictures, since the departure of Roy Lewis last summer. Even before that, he was taking some pictures.

Although plans are not yet definite, Thom plans to enter journalism at Ryerson next fall, and currently is negotiating for summer employment, full time, with a local daily newspaper. Just when we will require a replacement should be known in the next month or so.

This means the News-Argus is looking for the services of one or two persons to fulfil these duties commencing sometime this summer. Although Thom has done both jobs, it might work out there would be two people who would rather split the chores or share them, rather than one doing all the work.

Generally speaking the work consists of taking some pictures, developing and printing same, plus writing the sports once a week. Rather than train some person for a year or so, it would be preferable to have a student from Grade 10 or at least Grade 11 take on the work, and if there were some one interested in newspaper work as a career, that would be even more suitable.

Anyone who is interested in either or both phases of the work should contact either the publisher of the paper or Thom Reynolds as soon as possible. The technical work in the dark room is not difficult to learn, but will take a few weeks to master completely. Someone who has a driver's licence and access to a car would be even more suitable for the work.

Stirling WI Card Party

The Stirling Womens Institute held a card party Monday evening in the Community hall with 14 tables in play.

Social Convenor, Mrs. Goldie McInroy welcomed all. After the games the following received prizes:- Ladies first Mrs. Edna Good, ladies second Mrs. Claude Tucker. Men's first Everett Cooke, men's second, Mrs. Bessie Rodgers. Lucky cup, Mrs. Evelyn Finkle.

CUB CORNER

Our Monday, March 26, meeting was led by the Blue Six (Randy Lake, Mark Wilson, Mike Sine, Kevin Lake, and Donald Ashley) in the Grand Howl.

All were happy to have Kaa back with us after a short absence.

Inspection and roll call found 28 boys present. We hope Martin Lang, Stanley Ankiewicz and Doug Lake will soon be able to be back with us real soon. We miss you all.

Our study period was devoted to working on our badges and stars.

Akela and Kaa led in games.

Badges were given to:- Kevin Lake, House Orderly badge; Steven Adams, Pet Keeper's Badge.

Blue Six gave us their skit and Akela led our closing. (A reminder). -The boys working on the Blue Star must hand in their book of notes finished (and very neat) on Monday night, April 2, to Bagheera.

See everyone next week.

Again Barb Noble and Helena also boasted high single of 223 plus a 218. Barb Noble had a 219 single. Others over 200 were Eleanor Adams 218; Isabel Hutcheon 201; Ruth Glover 219, 207, also taking high triple of 615; Ruby Tompkins 215, Mildred Fraser 204, Maude McComb 207.

Wed. Night Ladies League

On Wed., March 21, the Wanderers were five to two winners over the Y's and the Strugglers also took five points from the Chasems. Present point standings are:

Wanderers	133 pts.
Strugglers	118 pts.
Chasems	89 pts.
Y's	52 pts.

Joan McLean took over high average once again with 180. In the "A" group, Joan McLean also took both high single with 276 and high triple of 674. In the "B" group, Linda McDonell took high single with 221 and Shirley Floud had high triple of 496.

Other good games were bowled by Sylvia Edgar 222 and 242; Eva Graff 199; Bonnie Mc Kay 206; Sheiron Hannah 210 191 and 209; Grace Donohoe 191 and 192; Jean Edgar 209; Marilyn Haggerty 214; Janice Glendenning 197; Betty Johnson 200; Joan McLean 225; Gloria Hart 238.

Energetic Ladies League

Energetic Ladies League

Friday afternoon March 23, was a record day with three 300 games being bowled and also the highest triple for any league this season; this being Lenora West's 879(323, 297, 259.) However, Ivy Poste took high single for "A" group, with her 324 game. Her other games were 248 and 186 for 758 triple. Elsie O'Brien has high average of 186 and can thank her lucky stars that Lenora can't qualify for this, as she started too late in the season to bowl the two-thirds of the season's games required.

Other good games were Elsie O'Brien 273, 208, 198, 679; Luella Bronson 249, 247, 666; Heather McGee 209; Pat Harris 181; June Wilcox, 203; Joan Jones 200, 180;

"B" Group (Average 159 and under) that other 300 game mentioned was Frances Merrick's 329 and with her other games of 185 and 171(685) gave her high single and triple but also raised her average to 165, a jump of six, to put her into the "A" group for next week. Too bad Frances hadn't started with us earlier in the season, so as to acquire enough games to qualify for the high awards.

Other good games were Jean Marchand 235, 191; Mabel Brooks 197; Shirley Whiteman, 194. 167; Grace Tanner 181, 175; Frances Heath 168,167; Jean Vance 175; Mary Johnson 181,169' Helen Pitcher 172.

Oops! almost forgot the team points. Well, Lenora's big scores helped give those Hep Cats another 5 points for 94. Even though Frances and Ivy were on the opposing team they only succeeded in helping their team the Happy Faces to get 2 points for 90. Sure a good thing that first game to 1219. Elsie's and Luella's big triples helped their team the Bottoms Up to gain another 5 points for 102. The Green Lights got the other 2 to add to their total to bring it to 78.

Stirling Bantam and Junior

On March 24 the points were divided more evenly as all teams won one of their two games. Results were Strikers 3 (84) over the Go Getters 2 (68); Hot Stuff 3 (64) over the Centre Pins 2 (59); Chargers 3 (60) over the Triumphs 2 (67).

BANTAM - Girl's high single - Janet Aide 169; high double - Joyce Scea 294; high average - Cheryl McGee 127.

Jerry Aide earned his 150 and 175 single crests and his 300 double for his games of 162, 184 (346) which were high for the boys this week. Greg Gozzard has high average of 128.

Other good games were Stephen Barrie 182, 119; Stephen Wilson 163,109; Margaret Wilcox 165; Joyce Scea 151, 142; Greg Gozzard 152, 151; Cheryl McGee 151, 128; Richard Scea 141, 110; Annie Bonnin 133, 113; Marianne Flieler 132, 124; Geoff Wilcox 127; Brian Clements 127; Sandra Edgar 116, 115; Joanne Campbell 121, 106; Douglas Royce 113; Janet Aide 105; Don Boersma 121; Heather La Rue 101.

JUNIOR - Girl's high single - Pamela Gozzard 175; high double - Kim Philp 317; high average - Suzanne Jacket 152.

Rodney McKeown had two games of 193 (386) for boy's high single and double. Ricky Clements held high high average at 190.

Other good games were Robby Clements 192, 178; Paul Scea 188; Ricky Clements 170, 161; Sherry Farrell 162; Dianna Barrie 160, 149; Kim Philp 161, 156; Janice Reid 148; Delani Chypyha 147; John McKay 147; Heather Sine 149, 138; Judy Tucker 157.

Don't forget you have to bowl your games with the league if you want your scores to be eligible in the Doubles Champions Tournament next Saturday.

Monday Night Men's League

It has taken the Odds and Ends all year to do it but they finally outwitted the Maple Leafs by taking 7 points from them, thus giving the Odds and Ends a 3 point edge on second place Maple Leafs. In the other encounters the Alley Cats were 4 to 3 winners over the Legion and the Straw Dogs were 5 to 2 winners over the Good Guys.

The year's high average is still held by Ray Poste with 231. The high single for the week went to Ray Poste and Mick Burns with games of 296. The high triple went to Ray Poste with 748.

Team points to date are:
Odds and Ends	111
Maple Leafs	108
Good Guys	93
Legion	82
Straw Dogs	80
Alley Cats	79

Hastings County Junior Farmers

On Feb. 14 Junior Farmers offically started another year. This was set off with the election of officers for the year 1973-74 at the annual meeting held at Harmony School. The elections were conducted by John Paul, a representative from the Department of Agriculture and Food. All the members seemed quite satisfied with the executive they elected.

Junior Farmers are going to be very active this year. We are planning a 50-50 ticket raffle. Each member will be selling tickets and the draw will be made in early May.

Also at a later date the club is planning to hold a dance. Final arrangements are not completed as yet, but it looks as though it isn't far off.

As most members know we have been sponsoring euchre parties through the winter. We are sponsoring another one to be held on Friday, March 30, at Bethel Zion Hall at 8 p.m. This may be the last one for the year and must now concentrate on projects for our forthcoming fall fairs.

That is all the happenings in Hastings County.

Easter Seals Reach Long Way

When pretty Gillian "Miss Canada" Regehr idly wondered just how far the 2 1/2 million Easter Seal campaign envelopes would reach end-to-end, Whipper Watson and Ontario's Timmy, young Richard Ware of Scarborough, came up with this visual answer: Toronto to the Quebec border.

Within the campaign opening week of March 22, every home in Ontario should have received its Easter Seals as another visual reminder of the Ontario Society for Crippled Children's annual fund drive.

The campaign will run until Easter Sunday, April 22, by which date the Society hopes to have raised $1,675,000 through the combined efforts of its 232 affiliated Easter Seal service clubs serving handicapped youngsters throughout the province.

Watson, long a member of the Society's board of directors, expressed his personal convictions when he said: "I know now only too well just how rough that road to rehabilitation really is, but I'm not travelling it alone. Over 14,000 youngsters will be walking it with me this year. We need all the help you can give if we're going to make every step count. Please, make every step count. Support your local Easter Seal campaign."

Local Timmy In Panorama

Local residents will be interested in a story in the Star Weekly this week.

Last spring Randy Sararas the 1972 Timmy for Stirling, did an interesting project in Centre Hastings Secondary School, Madoc. He wrote letters to other Timmy's and Tammy's from parts of Ontario. He received interesting replies from most of them.

A fellow student, Kathy Doss, thought a paper such as the Star Weekly would be most interested in Randy's story. At their promise of interest in reading this story, Kathy submitted the story last June.

Nothing more was heard until recently when the Star Weekly phoned Randy to have a photo submitted.

Kathy's story about Randy will appear in the Panorama Section of the Star Weekly this week.

SAFETY CHECK

After the wear and tear of winter driving it can pay in dollars and safety to have that important safety check of your vehicle. Such things as wheel alignment, steering assembly and brakes can develop faults. Neglect them, and such faults can cause real trouble. Get your car safety checked now. It may help prevent a collision, and may even save a life!

Province Plans Noise Controls

Beginning this summer, the first of a series of noise control regulations will be introduced in Ontario, Environment Minister James Auld revealed recently.

In an address to the London Rotary Club, Mr. Auld outlined the Ministry's progress to date in this field and its intentions to limit noise pollution.

"Our objective is to reduce the irritating and annoying sounds which invade our daily lives in many ways, to acceptable and reasonable levels." The Ministry's Air Management Branch has been studying various kinds of noise legislation and is drafting noise regulations under Ontario's Environmental Protection Act. Because of past difficulties experienced by agencies of all levels of government in devising effective and enforceable anti-noise measures, the Branch's progress has been careful and deliberate, he pointed out.

TYPES OF NOISE CONTROL PLANNED

"The most serious noise problem in most urban areas is produced by automotive traffic," Mr. Auld said. "For this reason, as its first step, the Ministry intends to regulate the operational noises of individual vehicles this coming summer."

The second step will be the establishment of ambient or overall noise level objectives for various types of areas throughout the province during 1973. These noise objectives will be specified for both day and night for the following areas of activity: rural residential, urban residential, commercial, industrial, mixed residential, mixed residential and commercial, and mixed residential and industrial. These suggested levels will be compared to the results of community noise level studies which are being carried out in London, Hamilton, and Woodstock before the ambient objectives are issued, Mr. Auld said.

"Thirdly, the Ministry intends to put forward a regulation covering noise and/or vibration emitted from all types of stationary sources," Mr. Auld added. This regulation will limit noise levels at property lines with emphasis on decreasing the noise level in residential areas; lower levels to come into effect at some future date would be spelled out in the regulation as would the methods and equipment used to take these noise measurements.

Mr. Auld added that, sometime in 1973, the Ministry also intends to draft a model by-law to combat local nuisance noises which could be put into effect by the municipal authorities concerned under the Environmental Protection Act or the Municipal Act.

"Also during this year, he said, we hope to propose a regulation to control noise from recreational devices with internal combustion engines, particularly snowmobiles."

"One of the most effective measures to reduce noise pollution over a long period of time would be to reduce the noise potential of products at the manufacturing level. Although some action could and may be taken by the province to prohibit the sale of noisy products in Ontario, the Ministry feels that the most effective legislation in this regard should originate at the federal level," said Mr. Auld.

"Noise is not a necessary evil and noise problems can be solved but like other pollution problems the solution demands a blend of technology, public and private action, and healthy doses of economic realism," commented Ontario's Minister of the Environment.

Pilots received $25 apiece and up to take a boat or scow through turbulent Whitehorse Rapids during the Klondike gold rush of 1898. The rapids which took the lives of many men, was tamed by the Whitehorse dam, constructed in 1958.

River Valley card party

River Valley Womens Institute sponsored their last card party on Friday evening March 23, with 16 tables in play. There were 32 guests from Windsor, Stockdale, Trenton, Bayside and Stirling in attendance.

The Education and Cultural activities group were in charge of the arrangements and furnished the refreshments which included hot cross buns, jellos, cheese and pickles.

Mrs. Frank Westfall donated the Ladies prize and the door prize.

The awards were:- Ladies high, Mrs. J. Frederick of Windsor, second, Mrs. Norman Rosebush, Men's high, Mrs. Glenn Morrow (playing a man's card), second, Roy Tucker. Door prize, Hubbard Faulkner.

The Institute extends sincere thanks to all those people who have patronized the card parties this season. We hope you will all return in November.

Untimely Boost

Professional hockey players, by comparison with other major sports participants, are not highly paid in terms of bonuses for winning the playoff series leading to the Stanley Cup, and for winning the "world hockey championship" itself. Over the past few years, the inducements have been gradually increased, but to announce yesterday another healthy hike seems to be a little out of line with the inflation battle we all are fighting.

Unlike a few years ago, the Canadian influence does not dominate the NHL boardrooms like it did in the days of Conn Smythe and Frank Selke, Sr. While there were at that time four American teams, compared to the two from Canada, the total output of players was Canadian, and the two Canadian clubs usually took more than their share of the glory. Now with the balance 11-3 in favor of the Americans, the influence is not hard to determine, and with the recent injection of the players' association bargaining into the picture, it would appear logical that there has been much American pressure for increased bonuses.

We do not question the relative merits of hockey versus basketball, baseball, and football, as undoubtedly, the winter sport is surely entitled to such post season rewards as the others. We do question the timing of the announcement of the increases, when both the Canadian and American governments are supposedly trying to find ways to halt the spiralling cost of living. Under the present sports salary structure in general, no professional athlete suffers at the bank wicket, as the average salary for seven months' work is much more than several hundred thousand earn in a full year. To ask the supporters to increase this standing through increased ticket prices and club assessments seems to be a little much.

During the past few months, in particular, we have been bombarded in all press media with the various influencing factors in the cost of living. While food lately has been the main topic, general costs have been gradually escalating, and show no signs of slowing down in any respect.

In the business operation, the wage cost and the related items of Canada Pension, Unemployment Insurance and a host of so-called bringe benefits, such as medical plans, pension benefits and numberous other items, are the major expense, usually more so than the basic material cost. Thus every salary or wage concession means more in unseen costs to the employer.

These are undoubtedly part of the basic reason for the continual rise in living costs, as each year employee groups ask for healthy percentage wages hikes and usually get them. These are the fruits of our system of living and democratic operations, but surely cost many dollars along the way.

During and after the recent federal election campaigns, the phrase "wage and price controls" was frequently heard in Canada, and in the USA they were imposed for a short while. The Americans, aside from the complaints of labor spokesmen, seem to have survived them while we have yet to feel their pinch.

At the rate things are going, it may be the only solution left. The announcements mentioned consist of 25 percent increases and more in some instances, less in others. How many pay checks do you know that have received such a boost recently?

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

For the first time since the Spring of 1936, Stirling business men along Mill St., have suffered considerable loss as a result of floods on Friday night and Saturday afternoon.

On Friday night the flood waters from the Creek running under the Marmora Road and North into Rawdon township swelled the drain running between Mill and Victoria Streets causing it to overflow its banks. The cellars of the business places were flooded and although the store owners had taken the usual precautions to avoid this annual flood damage, the water rose higher than it has since 1936 and considerable damage resulted R.B. Duffin's Furniture Store was completely flooded, with water racing from the rear of the premises and out the front entrance. Willing hands assisted in carrying much of the stock to the second storey and bags were filled with sand to barricade the rear entrances before the flood subsided. Earl Johnston's bake shop was also flooded.

However, the worst flood occurred Saturday afternoon when the Mill Pond overflowed its banks and the water crossed Mill Street at Mrs. R.H. William's residence to flood her living quarters to a depth of several inches as well as the cellars of the business places from Brooks' Mill west to the Bank of Montreal.

Through the alley between Duffin's and Stirling 5 - 1 Dollar Store the torrent raced onto Mill Street flooding it to a depth of a foot and crossing the Memorial Park over the retaining wall into the Creek.

At the Village dam the water raised within a few inches of the bridge, while frantic efforts were made to remove the remaining stop logs. Due to the height of the water, workmen were unable to man the winches for raising the logs and cranes on garage tow trucks were brought into use. A number of logs were eventually released and the remainder were removed Sunday morning after the water level had dropped.

South of the Front St. bridge the creek overflowed its banks and several acres of land were inundated. The residence of Carleton Wright, on Henry St., was completely surrounded while the roadway on each side of the Henry Street bridge was flooded.

Keeping it clean

with Bill Dodds

On thin ice...

If you were ice fishing on Crystal Lake in the Fenelon Falls area this winter, don't count on a warm welcome if you go back next year.

The cottagers association has just finished cleaning up the lake and according to association president Ken Bradshaw, they are fed up with ice fishermen.

They collected 100 piles of garbage--some in plastic bags, but most of it loose and frozen into the ice.

Also frozen in the ice, they found 50 piles of human waste.

There were several piles of ashes from garbage, paper and heating fires.

And they recovered 180 whiskey, beer and wine bottles --a farewell gift from the drinking winter sportsmen on the lake.

The really amazing thing is that all this garbage was left by the users of 13 ice huts.

It goes without saying, these ice fishermen were all strangers to the association. None of them had cottages on lake.

None of them would have to live this summer with the mess they left behind over the winter.

Mr. Bradshaw says the association is mad. They won't stand for any more of this. Now they are determined to ban ice-fishing from Crystal Lake.

Who can blame them?

The sad thing is that this is not an isolated incident. It is repeated over and over on lakes across the province.

The people who use these lakes in summer, when all the waste from winter washes ashore, are finding there is a limit to their patience.

The Ministries of the Environment and of Natural Resources are aware of the problem. For the past season, there has been an extensive campaign with public service announcements broadcast across Ontario by Environment Minister James Auld, with newspaper stories and with public education programs on the lakes.

All this has been an appeal for the co-operation of winter sportsmen. An appeal for them to clean up after themselves.

We'll know soon just how well it has succeeded.

One thing we do know-- on Crystal Lake, it failed.

Dental Topics

DECAY Culprit

The first really convincing proof that candy is harmful teeth came from a group of Swedish dentists a few years ago. They made a five-year study of young adults in a mental hospital.

After recording the progress of tooth decay for nine months on the regular institution diet, with no food between meals, they divided the patients into groups and added sugar in various forms for periods lasting one or two years. Large additions of sugar with meals, either in beverages or bread, made little difference in tooth decay. A chocolate bar between meals each day increased it to some extent.

Caramels between meals speeded decay even more, but when the between-meal snack consisted of toffee there was a tremendous jump in tooth decay.

Sticky sweets are especially harmful because they cling to the teeth. Germs, always present in the mouth, convert the sugar into acids. These acids are strength enough to burn a tiny hole in the protective enamel--starting decay.

So sticky candies between meals should certainly be out if you want to preserve your youngsters' teeth. Instead give them raw fruit and other snacks to discourage eating candy between meals entirely.

If you don't have candies around, your baby won't develop a taste for them. It is no hardship for him to do without them in his first two years and you would do well not to make his puddings or cooked fruit any sweeter than necessary.

A sweet tooth does grow on a person.

Weaver-Brown

Lorraine Brown, Belleville, and Frank Weaver, formerly of Stirling, were united in marriage on March 10 at the St. Thomas Anglican Chapel, Belleville, by Rev. Peter Tett.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. G. Smith, who held a reception at her home for the couple.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Dorothy Aziz, Trenton, and the groomsman was Howard Aziz, Trenton.

Following a wedding trip through the United States, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver will take up residence at their home on the Belleville Road.

StirlingHorticulture holds meeting

On Monday, March 19, Stirling Horticultural Society convened at St. John's Anglican Church Hall for their monthly meeting with an attendance of 35.

The President, Mrs. Floyd Armstrong, opened with the Lord's Prayer, Gardener's Prayer and a welcome to all.

The minutes and correspondence were read by Mrs. Jack Doran. Mrs. Grant Hubble gave the financial report.

It was noted that seven school girls are canvasssing the town for new members. Along with membership, each person is eligible for a box of plants as a premium.

At Easter, potted lilies are again to be presented to the various churches.

The society is looking forward to having two plant sales in May and a Flower Show to be held in St. Paul's United Church hall in June.

Mrs. Raymond McConnell and the March committee were in charge of the program and refreshments. Mrs. Grant Hubble had a reading "Ontario Flower - Trillium". Did you know that when you pick a trilium in the woods, the bulb dies?

A group of Mount Pleasant ladies, Mrs. Milton Shaw Mrs. Wm. McAdam, Mrs. Frank Andrews with Mrs. Mac Sharp at the piano favoured us with a number of Irish and well known songs.

We accompanied Mrs. G. Hogle on a trip to England, Wales, Denmark and Sweden. The English gardens were most beautiful.

Mrs. Oscar Merrick conducted a contest. Thank you was expressed to all by Mrs. Harry Waite.

MARSH WORLD

by ANGUS SHORTT Ducks Unlimited

WILDRICE — (Zizania Aquatica)

A highly important duck food. Except for a few isolated records it is confined to the eastern half of North America and there chiefly in the east-central states and along the coast south to Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas. In Canada, from south-eastern Manitoba to New Brunswick. Grows best in 2 to 3 feet of water, also in tidal flats when not too salty. Reaches height of 10 feet. Wild rice stuffing for wild duck is a gourmet's delight. Processed the long black grains make an excellent and highly nutritious cooked cereal.

Ivanhoe Institute

Mrs. John Wallace opened her home for the March meeting of the Ivanhoe Institute with a good attendance. Mrs. Dan Cooke opened the meeting in the usual way with Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Each member answered the roll call by giving their view on the present day education.

The Sec. treasurer read minutes of last meeting, correspondence and dealt with the business for the day. Short courses were discussed and different suggestions given. Collection was gathered and the birthday box and penny box passed. The remainder of the meeting was turned over to Education convenor, Mrs. Roeper. She opened this part of the meeting by Lil Wallace and Mabel Irvine giving readings. A show of antiques by each member was given and explained, and Mrs. Roeper had the topic given "the facts about the Group of Seven" and showed several paintings that the men had done and explained each painting.

Mrs. Roeper put on a song contest which was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Reoper thanked Mrs. Wallace for opening her home and all those that took part on the program.

The president, Mrs. Dan Cooke, closed the meeting with the Institute Ode.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Wooler, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burkitt visited Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Burkitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grills and Ted Grills visited Mr. and Mrs. A. Burkitt.

The Women's Institute held a euchre party on Friday evening at Harold Hall with 14 tables playing.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bateman, Margie and David, left on Saturday for a holiday in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Haselett and family of Don Mills spent the weekend with Mrs. Harry Haselett and visited his father in Belleville General Hospital.

Born at Belleville General Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vinicomb, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Broadworth are holidaying in Florida.

Faith Unit UCW

Faith Unit of St. Paul's United Church Women met on Tuesday, March 20, at the church. 28 ladies were in attendance, welcomed at the door by Mrs. H. David. The leader, Mrs. C. Fitchett, opened with a meditation on the Golden Rule, and all sang "Come Let Us Sing of a Wonderful Love."

Various reports were given and announcements made. 55 calls were made during the month. A poem, "I think that I shall never see a church as perfect as could be", was read. Bale-packing of used clothing was announced for late in May, and the members were reminded to send in used stamps and old glasses and ends of wool and coloured thread and empty spools for various projects in hand. Plans for a Bazaar to be held on November 30 were discussed. The cook book project was reported to be going well, with books available about May 1.

A devotional period was led by Mrs. R.N. Smith, with Mrs. J. Sharpe and Mrs. H. David asssisting. The theme was "Spring Cleaning", with an analogy drawn between house-cleaning and life reformation. A parable could be made of the discarding, refurbishing, renewal, and changes necessary, with help available from God, where Jesus found it for His work, saying, "Take My yoke upon you" to ease the loads. Mrs. Sharpe led in prayer, and Mrs. David read Scripture from Romans XII which describes the ideal life. The hymns, "O Thou to Whose All Searching Sight" and "Breathe on me, Breath of God", were used, and the offering dedicated.

The program, on India was in charge of Miss Lenora Williams. There are many religions practised in India including Christianity. 13 million are Christian, but this is less than three percent of the population. However it has had an important influence on various aspects of Indian life in general, especially on the caste system. The Great Commission by Jesus, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel unto every nation", is an imperative not to be disregarded by Christians, and mission work must go on. Group discussions followed on questions assigned.

The meeting was closed by singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus", and a short prayer led by Mrs. Fitchett. Tea was served and thanks was expressed by Mrs. J.B. Thompson.

Bethel UCW

On March 22, the members of Bethel U.C.W. served a pot luck dinner to nearly 100 guests. This is expected to be the last dinner for this season.

At two o'clock Mrs. Ketchen called the ladies together for the regular March meeting and read a poem concerning Spring. A verse containing the word "thought" was the roll call answered by 24 members. There were also eight small children present. The minutes of the last meeting and the correspondence were read and dealt with. Don't forget, members, that this U.C.W. caters at Hoard's Sale Barn on April 23.

Mrs. F. McGee was in charge of the worship service using the theme, "Our Gift for Worship." The scripture was read by Mrs. L. Hagerman and the meditation by Mrs. G. Russett and Mrs. S. Thompson. Mrs. H. Holden led in a responsive reading followed by prayer by Mrs. M. Johnson. Mrs. McGee read Psalm 23 as re-written for busy people. With Mrs. Elliott pianist the hymns sung were "Lead us heavenly Father" and "Jesus, keep me near the Cross."

A solo by Gloria Russett, "I have a little shadow" was much enjoyed. Readings were given by Mrs. S. Kellar, "Its later than you think", and by Mrs. G. Sine, "Every day a joy to live." Mrs. Ketchen resumed our study of India and conducted a crossword puzzle. The meeting closed with the Benediction.

Wellman's Meeting

Mrs. Gerald Russett was hostess for the March meeting of Wellman's Women's Institute with an attendance of 17 adults and five children, Mrs. Keith Clancy was convenor for this meeting on Citizenship and World Affairs.

Mrs. John Carlisle presided and opened the meeting with the Institute Ode and Lord's Prayer.

The roll call was answered by stating a duty of Canadians as world citizens.

The president reminded the convenors to have their reports ready for the next meeting which will be held in the Institute Hall. Mrs. Jim Pollock, District Convenor, gave a report of the Executive meeting when plans were made for the District Annual in Madoc on May 24th.

Mrs. Fred Beckett, Mrs. Jim Pollock, Mrs. Bruce Stapley and Julie Russett paid to the Birthday Box.

The motto, "One of today's weaknesses is not to be able to distinguish our needs from our greeds" was given by Mrs. Alfred Atkins.

Mrs. Douglas Clancy introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Jack Bush, who spoke about the various levels of government, the O.M.B., Planning Boards, zoning laws and regional government. He answered various questions concerning civic affairs. Mrs. Keith Clancy thanked Mr. Bush for hs very informative address and presented him with a gift.

Mrs. Fred Beckett rendered a solo "My Adobe Hacienda" and Mrs. Byron Seeley gave a reading "The Great Equalizer".

The meeting closed with the Mary Stewart Collect and God Save the Queen.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins and Mrs. Bruce Stapley.

Weekly Meditation

CONTRIBUTED BY STIRLING CLERGYMEN

(By Rev. C. Staples)

More and more people are raising questions which deal with the quality of life. Why the constant hectic pace? Why the constant pressure to succeed? Why the haunting uncertainty abou my future and my work? Why the deterioration in my personal relationships, in family life? These questions and many more like them are prompted by a basic dilemma felt by most people, but not shared openly for fear of being thought hypocrytical. We should not accept the accusation that most people are hypocrites without some kind of argument. For man's ideals always ever-reaches his actual way of life. This basic tension within man as a child of nature, compelled by its necessities and driven by its impulses is only one part of the story. Man is also spirit, "made in the image of God", with the capability of worshipping God, when he is brave enough.

What we face today in modern man is a search for answers and for help but not from the pulpit. He now looks to the stories he reads or hears or sees in the various media. The newspaper, the radio, the T.V. or the film are the places where people see an enlarged reflection of their own problems. They watch them solved, sometimes in violent ways and then proceed to solve their own in the dream world of their own imagination.

It is all too obvious that novels about romance and T.V. stories about marriage provide the housewife with a dream that reality can never match. Even the man can find his humiliation healed in the experiences of the T.V. world. Both return equipped to face the drudgery of life. Or so it seems.

So what we are experiencing more and more is a national decline in Church attendance. When questions are asked about moral perplexity, they are addressed to the doctor, the psychiatrist, or even the newspaper or the radio talk show. But decreasingly are these problems addressed directly to God by man when he is penitent upon his knees.

Part of the answer to this rejection of the Church as the place to find help, lies in man's basic fear about life itself. Our natural fear is "being found out." People are not afraid of sin or of sinning but they are afraid of being caught. Shame is more an anxiety than anything else. We allow all kinds of sham and pretence to exist because we dare not let ourselves be exposed. Man will not let it be known that his "feet have almost slipped".

When we take this kind of view of mankind, we begin to understand that what is happening is not a complete rejection of the Church but a fear to draw too near to God for fear of being found out. How do we end this misery and thus end some of the problems related to the bad quality of life today?

In the coming of Jesus into the world, God sends One who takes up each man's sense of guilt and fear of condemnation. It is through Christ's offering on the Cross of Calvary, the threat of shame and the fear of being found out is lifted and a new quality of life is offered. This great achievement is won. What is required of each person is to claim this great victory for himself. And how does he do that? By being part of that community of people Christ came to save. We see most clearly the greatness of Christ's work in the lives of his twelve apostles. It was within the small community of committed people that Christ did his effective work, where He taught them of their need for one another. And before He departed he left two great promises which were to continue wherever committed disciples are gathered together. One is that there is no power on earth or in heaven which He can not break and thus release us and make us free. And that we will never need to be alone ever, because He will always be with us.

Among the Books

At Stirling Public Library

Next Friday evening, March 30, the Stirling Public Library will have a special showing of the International Award winning film "The Red Balloon." This will begin at 7:30 p.m. but will last somewhat longer than the usual half hour. The Friday night films will continue until April 27th, after which daylight saving time will be in effect.

Our extended library hours are under review, and we will continue to be open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. on Fridays, we well as Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons from 3 - 5:30 p.m. The Saturday morning hours will be discontinued after the House League Hockey season ends.

Some new books to be found in the library will be of interest to many readers. For young readers a new supply of paperbacks are in, some for the picture book set. Among these are "Goodnight Moon," "The Green Thumb Story," The Laugh Book," Crictor," "Henny Penny" and others. For those a little older are new horse stories - "Afraid to Ride" by C.W. Anderson, "A Pony for the Winter" by Helen Kay, "Black Storm" and "Silver" by Thomas C. Hinkle, "Henry Morgan had a Horse" by Marguerite Henry, "The Blind Colt" by Glen Rounds, "The Dollar Horse" by Miriam Young, and "Hit Parade of Horse Stories." We also have new mystery and sports stories, as well as adventures, so that everyone will find something they will enjoy reading.

New titles on the adult shelves include some interesting biographies of people in the entertainment world - "The Moon's a Balloon" - the uninhibited life of David Niven; "I was Born Greek" - the autobiography of Melina Mercouri, with fascinating glimpses of her passionate political views on her native country, from which she is exiled; "Talking to Myself" by Pearl Bailey - full of anecdotes and opinions about contemporary life; "Winners got Scars Too" - the life and legends of Johnny Cash; "Bob Dylan" - the authorized biography by Anthony Scaduto; "A Life on Film" by Mary Astor and "Myself Among Others" by Ruth Gordon, each bring to life the worlds of the movies and theatre; "Joys and Sorrows" - reflections by Pablo Casals, the gifted musician and one of the great men of our time, whose influence in the world has far surpassed the limitations of his most famous talent.

For courtroom drama, "The Defense Never Rests" by F. Lee Bailey gives accounts of some of his most notorious cases, and in insight into the personality of this controversal lawyer. "Free as a Running Fox" by T.D. Calnan is a true wartime adventure of escape and incredible fortitude by an R.A.F. PILOT. "Diving for Sunken Treasure", "The Shark", and "Life and Death in a Coral Sea" by Jacques-Yves Cousteu are filled with beautiful color plates of undersea photography, with descriptive texts, an exciting look into a strange new world.

New fiction has also arrived with novels by Norah Lofts, Phyllis Whitney, Jean Plaidy, Dorothy Eden, Robertson Davies, Noel B. Gerson, as well as mysteries by Richard Lodkridge, Mignon G. Eberhart, Adam Hall, Anthony Gilbert, Harry Carmichael and Doris Miles Disney, among others. So -- Happy Reading!

Burning Rectal Itch Relieved In Minutes

Exclusive Healing Substance Relieves Pain As It Shrinks Hemorrhoids.

If you want satisfactory relief from 'Itching Piles'—here's good news. A renowned research laboratory has found a unique healing substance that promptly relieves the burning itch and pain—actually shrinks hemorrhoids. This substance has been shown to produce a most effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In case after case "very striking improvement" was noted, even among cases of long standing. And this improvement was maintained over a period of months!

This was accomplished by a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulate growth of new tissue. Now Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation "H". Ask for it at all drug stores—satisfaction or money refunded.

CARDS OF THANKS

I would like to thank relatives, neighbors, friends and family for flowers, cards, gifts, visits and telephone calls while I was in the Belleville General Hospital both times, and since my return home. Special thanks to Drs. Briggs and Matthews, Rev. Web Cox for his comforting message, nurses on 7th floor, and Spring Brook U.C.W. for the lovely card.
13-1 Mabel Cranston

I want to take this opportunity to say thanks to everyone who called to inquire about Carl and sent so many cards and flowers during his third stay in Belleville General Hospital. A special thanks to Dr. Parkin, Dr. Butler and Dr. Totten, all the nurses in I.C.U. and on 6th level. Thanks to Mrs. Empey and Alice and a very special thanks to Eric who was such great company for Carl. Also to Mum who kept Lorri, Aunt Helen and Audrey.

Again we want to thank relatives, friends and neighbors and all who showed their kindness during our time of sorrow in the loss of a dear husband and father. A special thanks for flowers, cards, donations to the Heart Fund and to Aunt Helen, the fellow workers at Marmoraton Mines, Local Union No. 4854, Rev. Cox for his kind words and to the Howder Funeral Home for their kindness and thoughtfulness.
Marie Ray,

TOWNSHIP OF RAWDON
ROAD CLOSING BYLAW

BY-LAW No. 988
of the
TOWNSHIP OF RAWDON

A BY-LAW FOR CLOSING ROAD ALLOWANCE PARTS OF LOTS 19, 20 and 21, of the 14th Concession of the Township of Rawdon, approximately 2,637.69 feet.

Whereas, by virture of Section 444 (1) (c) and (d), Chapter 284 of the Municipal Act, R.S.O. 1970, the Council of every municipality may pass a By-Law for stopping up a Highway and for the sale of the soil and freehold of the part of the Highway so stopped up.

AND WHEREAS, the Council of the Corporation of the Township of Rawdon deemed it expedient to stop up and sell part of lots 19, 20 and 21 of the 14th concession of the Township of Rawdon, approximately 2,637.69 feet.

AND WHEREAS, statutory requirements for giving notice of the proposed By-Law and for the hearing of persons who claim to be prejudicially affected have been complied with;

AND WHEREAS, no valid objections have been made to this by-law;

NOW THEREFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RAWDON ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. All and singular that certain parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the Township of Rawdon, in the County of Hastings and being composed of parts of lots 19, 20 and 21 of the 14th concession of the Township of Rawdon, approximately 2,637.69 feet.

2. That the said part of the allowance for road be stopped up and the same is hereby vested in the Corporation of the Township of Rawdon and the said Corporation is hereby authorized to sell the said allowance for road so stopped up to adjoining owners at such price as may be determined by the said Corporation, and in default of the said adjoining owners purchasing the same, to such other persons as it may see fit, for such price as may be determined by the said Corporation of $1.00.

3. This By-Law shall come into force and take effect immediately upon the Corporation of the County of Hastings passing a Confirming By-Law according to Section 444, (6) (c) Chapter 284, of the Municipal Act R.S.O. 1970.

Read a first and second time this fifth day of March, 1973.
W.J. Barlow, Clerk.
R.E. Shortt, Reeve.

I, R.E. Shortt, Reeve of the Township of Rawdon, do hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of By-Law No. 988, of the Township of Rawdon. 12-3

Nine Loyalist Photo Awards in Contest

Nine Loyalist photography students will receive Certificates of Merit for 11 prints accepted at the first national photography contest for university and college students in photography.

"Students behind the camera" was the theme of the contest organized by the Conestoga College of Applied Arts and Technology, under the guidance of Martin Oudejans, program co-ordinator, photography. Of the 27 universities and colleges that registered for the contest, 18 submitted a total of 347 entries.

Lorraine Monk of the National Film Board, Horst Ehrlicht, free lance photographer, Mike Hanlon on Canadian Magazine, John Richmond, artist and photo editor and Michael Seman, York University were the selection committee.

The exhibits were on display at Sherway Gardens, Toronto March 19 to 25. Following the showing there, the Art Gallery of Ontario will organize a travelling exhibition of the best 60 prints in the show. They will be displayed in art galleries and institutions across Canada.

Loyalist students who had their work accepted were: Maria Dolisni (portrait and landscape), Mike Manthorpe (St. Michael's Church and nude in perspective), Cheryl Craig (Belleville harbour at night), Judy Doornbos (landscape in high key), Randy Baird (nude in movement), George Pischa (silver-masked night scene), Dave Horashka (snow scene), Don Robinson (Kodalith scene), and Bill MacIntosh (Lake Ontario scene). Bill's print received an unofficial acclaim, it was "acquired" by an unknown admirer.

Duplicates and reproductions of the selected prints along with other work of Loyalist photography students will be on display at the photography studios during Loyalist College's Open House, April 3rd.

NORTHERN ONTARIO'S GEYSER

A compressed air plant built in 1909 and believed to be the last of its kind in the world is an attraction for tourists in the Cobalt area.

Ragged Chute Air Plant, eight miles south of Cobalt on the Montreal River, services a dozen mining companies where miners originally had to drill by hand. The plant was taken over by Ontario Hydro in 1945 along with other assets of the Northern Ontario Power Company.

Air is compressed by a method used in various parts of the world late in the 19th century. A column of water and air bubbles falls down a 351-foot shaft into a chamber, where the air separates from the water and is piped off. The plant has an output of 5,000 cubic feet of compressed air per minute at a pressure of 120 pounds per square inch.

A safety valve forms a 300-foot geyser of air and water, especially noticeable on weekends when the mines use a minimum of air.

Ellis Active In Labour Issue

Jack Ellis, M.P. for Hastings has been very active recently during the question period, rising on three consecutive days (March 13, 14, 15) to question the Minister of Manpower and Immigration. He has been part of a concerted Progressive Conservative effort to discredit this Minister. The attack started when it was learned that the Deputy Minister, after consultation with the Minister, issued a Telex directive to all Directors' General of Canada Manpower Centres across Canada on Friday, March 9th, to give "absolute priority in referrals for all jobs, including on-the-job-training to UIC claimants in the first instance, welfare recipients in the second instance, and other unemployed, in the third instance."

On the 13th, the Minister under heavy questioning, agreed that the suitability of skills should be the first criterion.

On the 14th, under further attack, the Minister stated that he intended the directive to cover only L.I.P. programs.

On the 15th the Minister under heavy fire from both NDP and Conservative parties, retracted the directive, issued a counter-manding order, and agreed to table all the documents.

The questioning of Mr. Ellis, and other party members especially Lincoln Alexander, Manpower Critic, for the P.C. party dealt primarily with the fact that the directive was issued in direct contravention to existing legislation and would have put at a disadvantage, veterans, young persons and others, new and old, in the labor market.

Mr. Ellis has taken a special interest in the problems of the unemployed. His major interest in Parliament is in the field of Transport. A major speech on this subject was made by Mr. Ellis on March 20th.

Stirling Phones Increase By 144

Bell Canada spent $74,000 in Stirling in 1972 to relocate services of moving customers and to replace outworn or damaged facilities, to improve service and to increase capacity to meet future customer demands, Mr. Bob Carleton, Bell's local manager said last week.

Mr. Carleton was elaborating on Bell's annual report, which is being mailed to the company's 240,000 shareholders. The report shows that Bell's capital spending in 1972 was $508 million throughout the area that the company serves in Ontario, Quebec, Labrador and the Northwest Territories.

"During the year, 254 telephones were connected and 110 disconnected in Stirling for a net gain of 144," he said. At year end, Bell Canada had more than 6,742,000 telephones in service -- a net increase of 447,000 over 1971.

In the annual report to shareholders, Bell Canada Chairman R.C. Scrivener said that record levels in the number of subscribers served, in local and long distance calls, in operating revenues and in earnings per share for the year were achieved. "A buoyant economy increased demand for services and required greater expenditures than ever before in both operating and capital costs," he reported.

Mr. Scrivener said that by far the largest portion of construction expenditures -about $338.5 million - went to meet growth requirements. "Bell Canada must anticipate future customer demand so that it can ensure that the required lines and equipment are available in the right place at the right time to meet customer needs," added Mr. Scrivener.

In Stirling, the company paid $2,241. in municipal taxes. This was part of its total tax bill of $180,688,000 for the year.

In the report, Bell Canada's new president, A.J. de Grandpre, said that virtually all Canadian households in the areas served by the company enjoy telephone service. The universality of telephone service in Canada has been made possible by a pricing policy which has resulted in rates for basic service which are among the world's lowest.

Mr. de Grandpre commented that in Bell Canada territory, it takes an average of just one and a half hours of work to pay for a month's telephone service.
